WEEKLY NEW ERA.

ONE DOLLAR A YEAR.

HOPKINSVILLE, CHRISTIAN COUNTY, KENTUCKY, FRIDAY, MAY 15 1908

VOLUME XXVII, NO 29

Chat About People and Things

A license has been issued for the marriage of W. A. Nichols, of Crofton, to Miss Maud Durham.

Chas. W. Hisgen has sold his place containing sixteen acres lying near Riverside cemetery, to John Boyd. The consideration is given at $1,400 and "other valuable considerations."

A bunch of fishermen left this morning for Lock, No. 5, on Green river, of which E. F. Morris, formerly of this city, is keeper, where they will spend several days fishing. In the crowd were C. R. Clark, E. H. Higgins, M. V. Dulin, M. F. Crenshaw, G. W. Southall, Hunter Wood, Jr., and Tobe Morris.

The L & N railroad company has announced a rate of $5.55 for the round trip to Birmingham, Ala., June 1, 10 and 11, the tickets being on sale for three days prior to those dates. A special reunion train will leave Madisonville on the morning of June 8 and will pass Hopkinsville at 9:37 o'clock. The members of the Ned Meriwether camp, Confederate veterans will go on the train together with a large number of citizens from all over this section. The train will arrive at Birmingham that evening about 6 o'clock.

Capt. R. S. Pool, the genial host of the Cerulean Springs hotel, was here this week and he reports that he is making extensive arrangements and improvements in preparation for the entertainment of the Kentucky Press association which will meet at his place the week of June 15. Capt. Pool, during the years he has conducted the Cerulean Springs hotel, has established a far reaching reputation for the excellence of his fare and the comfort of the accommodations, but during the meeting of the press association he says he will go even further than usual in making his guests have a good time.

The big hotel is to be repainted and everything will look as bright and clean as a thorough cleaning can make it. Capt. Pool already has on the ground about a hundred pounds of white lead, a barrel of linseed oil, thirty gallons of ready mixed paint, brushes and other adjuncts to the painting of the big hostelry. Nearly fifty of the rooms are to be newly papered and the grounds are to be put in spick and span shape for the occasion.

There is some talk of a big barbecue being given during the meeting of the press association and if these plans are carried out the barbecue will probably be given in the grove just back of the hotel.

HOLLOWELL CASE

PAUCAH, Ky., May 14.—As soon as the verdict in the Hollowell case was returned attorneys for the plaintiffs entered a motion for the immediate issuance of copies for all the defendants, excepting Lulu Hollowell, and Judge Evans said he would consider the motion at Louisville as soon as the attorneys presented an affidavit in support of it.

On motion of Attorney William T. Post, for the defense, Judge Evans gave them thirty days in which to file a bill of exceptions, and the attorneys took steps to make bond for appeal.

The cost of these two trials probably will exceed $3,000, and the whole expense, including attorney fees, will reach $50,000.

SAYING KIND WORDS

ABOUT THE GREAT MAY MUSIC FESTIVAL

Interest In The Jubilee Of Song And Harmony Is Widespread In Western Kentucky.

The indications are that the most brilliant first night audience that ever greeted any entertainment in Hopkinsville will fill the tabernacle next Tuesday evening when the May Music Festival opens. The citizens here will turn out in full force and there will be crowds from many other places.

The Cadiz Record says: "The people of this entire section have been glad ever since the engagement of Creatore and his band for the Hopkinsville May Music Festival was announced, but when they realize that this stellar musical organization will appear in only four cities in Kentucky and not in Tennessee at all, before going to Chicago for the summer, they will realize more fully what an opportunity is offered them by the May Music Festival at which Signor Creatore and his sixty-five musical artists will be the center of attraction."

The Pembroke Journal says: "The magnitude of the May Music Festival which will be given at Hopkinsville on May 19, 20 and 21st, under the auspices of the Elks lodge and Union Tabernacle association, will far surpass anything of the kind ever attempted outside of the large cities."

It is understood that the Madisonville contingent will be a large one, and the Daily Hustler of that city in commenting on the festival, remarks:

"From all indications the people from all over this section will show their appreciation of the opportunity offered them by the enterprising Elks and the Union Tabernacle management of Hopkinsville in putting on this festival and bringing Creatore and his band within their reach by liberally patronizing the performances."

The Princeton Leader, in its current issue, prints a striking likeness of Creatore and says:

"Creatore needs no introduction to music lovers, as he stands pre-eminent as the leading bandmaster of the world, and by far the most eccentric musical genius of the age. Everyone of his men in the band are full blooded Italians and while they perhaps may not be able to talk intelligently in good old United States they draw from their instruments such music as only born artists can render."

The Clarksville Leaf Chronicle in a recent issue gives the following advice to its readers:

There is no one who has ever heard Creatore and his band who will not be doubly anxious to hear and see him again, while those who have never heard him should not miss this opportunity."

THE PICTURE OF A MAN.

JUDGE A. J. G. WELLS.

The man of the hour in Kentucky is Judge A. J. G. Wells, of Murray, who has put the Night Riders out of business in Calloway county. He is 37 years of age and was born on a farm two miles west of Murray. When he was but a lad his father died and the duty of providing for his mother and three sisters fell upon his youthful shoulders. What time he could spare from his work, he spent upon his books, being entirely self-educated, and it was not until he was twenty-one years old that he found time to attend school. He entered the Southern Normal university of Huntingdon, Tenn., and, with high honors, was graduated both from the academic and law department of that institution. He is married and his family consists of his wife and three young children. He is a Democrat, a member of the Methodist church and an advocate of temperance. Judge Wells is a successful lawyer and an able speaker. Before entering the legal profession he was a school teacher. In his campaign against lawlessness he has been rendered invaluable assistance by Sheriff J. A. Edwards, Deputies J. H. Holland and L. W. Holland and County Attorney N. B. Barnett. The Louisville Times pays the following tribute to Judge Wells:

"After two years, in which anarchy and the specter of fear have made life in the tobacco districts of Kentucky a hell, in which the law has been voiceless, and Kentucky's government a thing of sorry jest or bitter shame, there has been found in the county of Calloway, a young school teacher judge, who for a beggarly $300 a year and because of his oath of office has pawned his life to do his duty. Men have been few and far between in Kentucky these two years, or else, so overly modest as to cause them to make themselves invisible.

"In Judge Wells, Kentucky has found at last a man who measures up to the claims that Kentucky in the past has made of her manhood. He may not live to the completion of the work that he began single-handed and which already has broken the backbone of night riding in Kentucky, and Kentucky should not wait until he is dead to show that she still knows and honors a man when she sees him. The people of Kentucky, as a people, should give to Judge Wells some concrete evidence, in the form of a token that will last, that his courage, his loyalty and his sacrifice have not gone unheeded."

Judge Wells was one of the first champions of the Planters' Protective association in the Purchase region. In this connection he says: "The association has but two enemies—the trust and the Night Rider. Go after the trust; go after the Night Rider; use every means to suppress them both. The worst enemy the association has is the Night Rider. Those who love the association and want to see it prosper must of necessity declare unrelenting war on night riding. I shall use all legitimate means in my power to assist the commonwealth's and the county attorney in the prosecution of these cases. I am willing to be maligned, vilified and abused if I can but aid in ridding our fair land of this hideous nightmare and in restoring liberty, freedom and happiness among our citizens."

RELEASED ON BOND

MEN IMPLICATED IN KILLING OF THE WOODS

Hardwick, Who was In Hopkinsville Jail For Safe Keeping, Furnished $2,000 Bail.

The application for bail of J. H. Magan, J. L. Jenkins and W. E. Hardwick, charged with participation in the recent street battle in Central City, which resulted in the deaths of J. D. and John Wood, came up before Judge W. P. Sandidge, at Greenville. Hardwick, it will be recalled, was brought to Hopkinsville for safekeeping immediately after the shooting.

Commonwealth's Attorney R. Y. Thomas, County Attorney Belcher and Attorneys Rogers and Wilkins appeared for the state and J. C. Simms, of Bowling Green, and Meredith and Sparks for the applicants for bail.

The hearing lasted all day. Over a hundred witnesses were present and the courthouse was crowded most all day.

Some twenty-five or thirty witnesses were examined and the testimony was similar to that given before the coroner's jury and fully as conflicting.

About 8 p. m., Judge Sandidge admitted Hardwick and Magan to bail in the sum of $2,000, which they quickly gave and were released. J. L. Jenkins' bond was fixed at $1,500, which he promptly gave and was released.

MADE BY MACHINE.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 8.—After having controlled the organization and seated their delegates in all save a few of the contested counties during an all-night session of the committee on credentials, the Taft men were apparently about to put their slate of delegates at-large through without a hitch at yesterday's session of the Kentucky Republican convention when their programme was endangered and the slate at one time apparently broken. Instead of winding up the business of selecting delegates-at-large to the Republican National convention in an hour or two, there was a session lasting from 10 a. m. until 5:30 o'clock, when, after hours of disorder, wire-pulling and suspense, the Taft men finally won out and elected the following delegates-at-large instructed for Taft to the Chicago convention: Gov. A. E. Willson, Louisville; Judge A. N. Burnam, Richmond; W. Marshall Bullitt, Louisville; E. D. Lane (colored), Louisville.

(After Senator-Elect W. O. Bradley's eloquent harmony speech, an effort was made to elect him one of the delegates, instead of Bullitt but after hours of maneuvering he was defeated by 183 votes.

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of and not in itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific nerve sickness—acidity etc.

It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Restorative—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success and gave to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative, without that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had.

For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and sallow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend.

UNUSUAL BIRD SEEN

SMALL FLOCK PAYS VISIT TO THIS LOCALITY.

The Reed-bird or May-bird, Known in Northern States as the Bobolink.

A small flock of them were seen in a meadow near the city yesterday, that seemed to be making us a short visit while on their northern journey from the south, where they are known as the Rice-bird. They are about the size of red winged Black-bird. "The spring coat of the male is glossy black; h'nd head clear cream color; a patch on the side of the breast; feathers on the shoulder-blade and rump white; outer primaries clearly marked yellowish white; tip of the tail feathers of a pall brownish ash. Early in autumn, he gradually fades to the color of the female; Yellowish beneath; upper parts dark brown, excepting the back of the head and rump; two stripes on the top of the head; sides

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell. Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

sparsely streaked with dark brown." This description is taken from "Birds of North America" and is very accurate. Audubon tells of the concerts of these birds. He writes: "During their sojourn in Louisiana, in spring, their song, which is extremely interesting and emitted with a volubility bordering on the burlesque, is heard from a whole party at the same time; when, as each individual is, of course, possessed of the same musical powers as his neighbors, it becomes amusing to listen to thirty or forty of them beginning one after another, as if ordered to follow in quick succession, after the first notes are given by a leader, and producing such a medley of sound, as it is impossible to describe, although it is extremely pleasant to hear it."

This is not intended as an ad. of the May Music Festival. The birds are making their temporary abode in a little meadow just opposite the Holland place, out South Virginia street. G. C. L.

MAKE THE STOMACH WORK.

Indigestion Can Never Be Cured By Molluscoding.

Don't try to cure your stomach trouble by coaxing, fussing, dieting and molluscoding.

Make the organ work. If it cannot take care of the food you eat without complaints such as flatulence, indigestion, headaches, and the feeling of fullness or distress, make its muscles work by using Mi-o-na stomach tablets.

These little tablets, taken with regularity for a few days, will soon strengthen the muscles and walls of the stomach so that it will take pleasure in working to digest the food you eat, and there will be no further suffering with indigestion, bloating, flatulence or distress after eating.

The time to treat a disordered or weakened stomach is when you begin to suspect that you have indigestion, for the suspicion will turn to certainty very soon. The heartburn, the flatulence, the coated tongue and heavy and dull feeling after eating that come occasionally after you eat too much of something that does not agree with you, will show themselves after nearly every meal unless the stomach is put to work with Mi-o-na.

There is no need of special dieting if you set the stomach at work with Mi-o-na. Eat what you want and when you want it and believe that you are going to be well and you are going to be well and you will see relief from the first dose and complete cure in a few days.

Try a 50-cent box of Mi-o-na on L. L. Elgin's guarantee of money back if it does not do all that is claimed for it.

PEMBROKE SCHOOLS

Baccalaureate Sermon Delivered By Dr. Jenkins.—A Calendar of All
The Entertainments.

PEMBROKE, Ky., May 11.—Commencement exercises of Pembroke High school are in progress this week.

"The blood is the life." Science has never gone beyond that simple statement of scripture. But it has illuminated that statement and given it a meaning ever broadening with the increasing breadth of knowledge. When the blood is "bad" or impure it is not alone the body which suffers through disease. The brain is also clouded, the mind and judgment are affected, and many an evil deed or impure thought may be directly traced to the impurity of the blood. No one can be well balanced in mind and body whose blood is impure. No one can have a wholesome and pure life unless the blood is pure. Foul blood can be made pure by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. When the blood is pure, body and brain are alike healthy and life becomes a daily happiness.

Standing out in bold relief, all alone and a conspicuous example of open, frank and honest dealing with the sick and afflicted, Dr. Pierce's prints or the bottle wrapper in plain English, a full list of the ingredients. Therefore not a "patent medicine" but a medicine of known composition.

Estray Notice.

Taken up as a stray by G. W. Orange at his farm on the Dawson and Macedonia road 4 1/2 miles from Macedonia postoffice one chestnut sorrel mare supposed to be 8 or 9 years old with blaze in forehead, all four feet white to her knees except the left fore foot which is white to the ankle joint with brand on right shoulder with "A A" and a figure three. Where is Your Hair?

In your comb? Why so? Is not the head a much better place for it? Better keep what is left where it belongs! Ayer's Hair Vigor, new improved formula, quickly stops falling hair. There is not a particle of doubt about it. We speak very positively about this, for we know.

Does not change the color of the hair.

Formula with each bottle Show it to your doctor
Ask him about it,
then do as he says.

Indeed, the one great leading feature of our new Hair Vigor may well be said to be this—it stops falling hair. Then it goes one step further—it aids nature in restoring the hair and scalp to a healthy condition. Ask for "the new kind."

THINGS LOOK GOOD

ELKS ENTHUSIASTIC OVER MAY MUSIC FESTIVAL.

The festival will open on Tuesday night, May 19, with what will be known as "Grand Opening Night—Popular Songs and Old Melodies," in which Creator's band, the vocal instrumental soloists and the great chorus will take part.

On Wednesday afternoon, May 20th., will be the "Children's Festival—Jubilee of Song and National Airs," and at this time the children will hold forth, a chorus of 500 voices having been organized for this occasion.

On Wednesday night the program will be "A Round of the Operas—Grand Carmen Selection," in which the adult chorus and all the soloists will participate.

Thursday afternoon, May 21st., a distinct departure will be made when the program will be "Atlantic City Program—Reminiscences of Scotland." Just this announcement is enough to guarantee the worth of this performance.

If there is any best to the festival it will be saved for the last night, and on Thursday night the offering will be, "Military Night—A Day at West Point." This will introduce both the adult and children's choruses, all the soloists and Creator's band, and will be a fitting finale to this most stupendous musical offering lasting through three days.

From all indications the people all over this section will show their appreciation of the opportunity offered them by the enterprising B. P. O. Elks and the Union Tabernacle management of Hopkinsville in putting on this festival and bringing Creator and his band within their reach, by liberally patronizing the performances. In nearly every town parties are being organized to visit Hopkinsville at this time.

Pike to be Extended.

A committee composed of Chas. E. Barker and W. R. Dudley have raised an amount of money sufficient, with the appropriation to be made by the fiscal court, to extend the turnpike on the tobacco road to St. Elmo, a distance of six miles from Pembroke.

The appointment of this committee and its success in securing several miles more of pike, was the result of a meeting of the Pembroke Farmers' Club held in this city Saturday. The committee went to work at once, and that no serious obstacle was evident from the very short time in which the work was done.

The road question in south Christian is one that will not down, and that must be kept constantly in the state of agitation. With good roads, which we confidently expect within the next few years at the latest, south Christian will be as fine section of the country as can be found anywhere in Kentucky. The institute workers who were with us this week were unanimous in their belief that our country has no superior in any thing except roads. This one exception must and will be eliminated.—Pembroke Journal.

COURT OF APPEALS

INVOKED BY ATTORNEYS OF RE-PUBLICAN CLAIMANT

Seek To Secure a Writ of Prohibition
Against Circuit Judge Thomas
P. Cook.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

Instead of becoming simpler it seems that Christian county's now celebrated sheriff's case is getting more and more complicated, as hardly a day passes that some new move or countermove is not made by one side or the other.

The latest phase was developed yesterday morning when the attorneys for Mr. Renshaw served notice on Circuit Judge Thomas P. Cook, at Eddyville, that they would apply to the court of appeals today for a writ of prohibition to prevent his honor from interfering in the case until the regular June term of circuit court when the case would come before him in regular order.

This action upon the part of Mr. Renshaw follows that of the attorneys for Mr. Smith who went before Judge Cook last week and secured from him a temporary writ of prohibition which estops County Judge Prowse from assuming jurisdiction and passing upon a petition which seeks to secure an injunction to force Sheriff Smith to give possession of the sheriff's office and to cease the further discharge of the duties of that office, such as the serving of process, etc. The appeal which will be made to the court of appeals today by Mr. Renshaw's attorneys is the same in reference to Judge Cook that the appeal of Mr. Smith's attorneys to Judge Cook was to Judge Prowse.

When Mr. Smith's attorneys went before Judge Cook their contention was that Judge Prowse, by reason of his having issued the original order against Mr. Smith, his being a party to one of the suits filed and a witness in the case, was thereby disqualified from hearing the petition asking for an injunction, which, from the county, would have to come up before the county judge. On these grounds Judge Cook issued a temporary writ of prohibition against Judge Prowse to keep hands off until the case would come up for hearing on the first day of the June term of circuit court.

In their appeal before the court of appeals today, Mr. Renshaw's attorneys will contend that Judge Cook had no jurisdiction at this time; that he was absent from the county and it was within the province of the county court to pass upon the case temporarily until the matter could be presented in due form to the circuit court; and that Judge Cook was not warranted by the law in interfering in the case until it came up to him in due form as an appeal from the action of the inferior court.

The first intimation that Mr. Smith or his attorneys had of the action upon the part of Mr. Renshaw's attorneys was when Judge Cook telephoned here about noon yesterday that the notice had been served upon him.

The decision of the court of appeals in this matter is awaited with much interest here.

The Salubria Springs hotel, which the contractors failed to complete in time for business last year, is to be opened on June 1 and everything points to a most prosperous season.

T. D. Ackerman, of Pembroke, who has established his reputation for good eating at his hotel in that town, is to be in charge of the Salubria hotel. His son, big and jolly Bob Ackerman, will be clerk.

The furniture for the hotel has been shipped from the factory and is expected to arrive in a few days and will be placed in position promptly upon its arrival. There are forty rooms in the hotel, with spacious verandas running the entire length of the building upon each side, and its popularity will be established at once upon its opening. Everything about the hotel will be brand new. The grounds are ample and shaded by monster forest trees while from the earth bubble forth many springs of various types of health-giving waters.

The boosting department of the Louisville & Nashville railroad is taking a decided interest in the springs and has sent for pictures of the place which are to be used in a folder they are to get out. Letters in quantities have been received from prospective guests all over the central states of the union, even far-off Texas being represented in these. These parties are all inquiring for rates and particulars as to the place and a large crowd of people from a distance are expected. The springs are situated just right for parties from Hopkinsville, Pembroke and other nearby places to go over for a day or even to drive out late in the afternoon and take the evening. Harvesting Machinery

"Down With the Trust?"

WE believe implicitly in active competition. Every farmer knows that Harvest machines are an absolute necessity on the modern farm. Any attempt to monopolize this necessity in his business in order to ultimately impose a tribute upon him should be forever defeated. The price of Harvesting Machinery has advanced since the great trust was formed, showing without a doubt what they will do if the farmer will continue to buy from them, thereby leaving absolutely no competition. Why is it that the price of binders alone have advanced considerably since the trust has taken hold of them? We say to the farmers that we will furnish them with one of the best machines built, binders, mowers and rakes, at

BEAUTIFUL HOME WEDDING

Miss Flack and Mr. Eckles Take Nuptial Vows.—One of The Most Interesting Society Events of The Year.

In the parlor of the residence of the bride's parents on South Main street, Miss Pattie Flack and Mr. Alfred Hicks Eckles were united Tuesday evening in the sacred bonds of marriage in the presence of a limited company of relatives and friends. It was one of the loveliest home weddings ever solemnized in this city and, linking the lives of two of the most popular young people, it was a social event of unusual interest. The apartment in which the service was said had been beautifully dressed for the happy occasion with a wealth of floral adornment and the air was laden with the sweet scent of spring blossoms. Promptly at nine o'clock the nuptial party entered the room from the main hall to the sweet strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, and during the rites Warner's Evening Star was softly played, Miss Addie Green presiding at the piano. The attendants, Miss Nell Tandy and Mr. Lawson Flack and Miss Mary Tandy and Mr. Fred Jackson came first, and immediately preceding the bride and bridegroom was the maid of honor, Miss Agnes Flack, sister of the bride. Miss Flack and Mr. Eckles were met in the center of the room by the Rev. Dr. Millard A. Jenkins, pastor of the First Baptist church, who impressively pronounced the ceremony. The bride was wedded with a ring symbolizing endless devotion. The service was concluded with a feeling prayer for divine blessing to rest upon them all through their lives. The bride was beautiful and was attired in a handsome gown of white and wore a veil which was caught with a gorgeous diamond sunburst, the gift of the bridegroom. The pretty bridesmaids all were in white, and the gentlemen wore the conventional evening suits. After hearty good wishes and congratulations had been spoken, the guests were invited into the dining room where delicious ices, cakes and confections were served. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Flack and her personal charms and womanly graces have since her debut made her a favorite in Kentucky society circles. The fortunate bridegroom is one of Hopkinsville's foremost young citizens, popular with everybody, a sterling business man and of an ideal one, and the regard and esteem in which the couple is held by their host of friends was abundantly attested by the many and exceedingly handsome presents they received. Mr. and Mrs. Eckles left at midnight for an extended trip to southern points, with Havana, Cuba, as the objective. They will return to Hopkinsville early in June and will have rooms for the present with Mr. and Mrs. Flack.

$35,000 DAMAGES NINE MORE ARRESTS

VERDICT IN THE HOLLOWELL CASE IS RETURNED

Jury Was Out Only Forty-Five Minutes.—Other Cases to be Tried In November.

PADUCAH, Ky., May 13.—The $50,000 damage suit of Robert E. Hollowell for his whipping by Night Riders who, he alleged, were his brother John E. Hollowell and 27 other Caldwell county citizens, was decided promptly this morning in favor of the plaintiff.

The jury was instructed by Judge Evans last evening and allowed to retire for the night before beginning its consideration of the evidence. Judge Evans commented at length on the remarkable memories of the witnesses who testified for the defense in the effort to establish alibis for the twenty-eight defendants.

At nine o'clock this morning the jury began its deliberation and in forty-five minutes reached an agreement, giving Robert Hollowell a verdict of $35,000. The jury was composed of citizens of Bullitt, Jefferson and Spencer counties.

The jury which tried the case in May hung, being divided ten to two, and were discharged by Judge Evans, who issued a call for a special term.

Mr. Hollowell's case is the only one to be tried now. That of his wife Mary L. and his son, Price, will go over until November term.

LARGE TICKET SALE

THREE TIMES AS BIG AS THAT OF LAST YEAR

The season ticket sale for the May Music festival closed last night, and is over three times as large as that of last year. The festival is attracting attention for fifty miles around in this region. Nightly rehearsals of the choruses are being held.

To the unfatigued, those who have never heard the great Creator, the first impulse is to smile, then giggle, then laughter outright, but this soon changes, first to a sober countenance, then rapt attention, then a look of bewilderment and awe comes over the spectator as the wonderful leader is bringing both his hand and his audience to him as if by some subtle influence. No conductor of a musical organization who comes to American shores has so subtly bewildered an audience as Creator. Said the critic on the Boston Herald: "It is not his peculiar and original methods of conducting, it is not his fervor and frenzy in striving to bring out every possibility, there is in his splendid band, but it is, the inborn genius and spirit of the man himself which yields a powerful influence over band and audience alike. There is only one Creator, and there has never been another like him. He seems to be the incarnation of the music and demonstrates in his every mood." Add so it has been by every critic who has heard Creator. His coming to Hopkinsville has created no end of interest, and he is sure to be greeted by very large and brilliant audiences during his half week stay here.

HELPED TO HOME

OLD CONFEDERATE ON WAY TO PEWEE VALLEY

John Rochelle and wife, both well past seventy years, applied to County Judge Prowse this morning and were given transportation to Louisville. Rochelle established his claim to having been a Confederate soldier and having gone through the entire war. He and his wife are on their way to the Confederate home at Pewee Valley where they expect to spend the rest of their days. The old man is nearly blind. The couple met Squire Tom Barker, of Elmo, as they entered the courthouse and these two old soldiers had a most interesting conversation and exchange of experiences.

Rochelle enlisted early in the war as a member of Co. F., Third Kentucky infantry. This was afterward turned into a battery and commanded by R. Cobb, and although the command afterward passed to F. P. Gracey, of Clarksville, it was always known as Cobb's battery. The old soldier has fought all through the country. He was wounded three times, at Franklin, Tenn., Murfreesboro and Hartselle. He was once taken prisoner and held for five months at Camp Chase at Chickamauga, and, as he expressed it this morning, he "would rather have fit the Yankees five years than stayed there five months."

He passed through Hopkinsville under the command of Gen. Breckinridge when that officer went to Rochester and destroyed the locks in the river at that place. He was familiar with nearly every incident of the war and repeated names, dates and occurrences with a readiness and correctness which at once won the confidence of his hearers.

The couple started from Wichita, Falls, Texas, eleven days ago and have been passed from one to another Confederate organization until they reached here. They left here at 11.20 over the Illinois Central and will reach Louisville about 5.30 this afternoon. Here they expect to receive prompt assistance from Col. Bennett Young or Gen. Basil Duke, both of whom Rochelle claims to know intimately, and go at once to the Confederate home.

The court of appeals yesterday passed up the hearing of the motion made by attorneys for J. M. Renshaw, seeking to secure a temporary writ of prohibition against Circuit Judge Cook until May 21. At this time they will hear both sides of the case.

Keep Your Bowels Open

It is a noticeable fact, and one which any doctor will verify that people who suffer most often from disease are the ones who have the most difficulty in keeping their bowels open. Regular bowel action is half the battle of health.

People who have a tendency to constipation must of necessity use something to help nature along. This should not be a violent aid like salts or purgative waters, cathartic pills or powders, but a syrup liquid that will oil the intestines and membranes that it comes in contact with. Children, women and weak people generally should never be given a strong physic, as it weakens the system. And it is true for the strongest person because the relief is simply for that day, and then the reaction sets in and you are worse off than before.

What is needed is a prompt but gentle laxative tonic like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. People have been taking it for sixteen years and it is being better liked by more people every year. The reason is that it is gentle, it is unlike anything else. Results are so sure in constipation, dyspepsia, indigestion, liver trouble, biliousness, flatulency, sour stomach, weak stomach, bloated stomach and such ills that a course of any of these ailments is absolutely guaranteed. A bottle costs but 50 cents or $1 and is worth a hundred times that to any sufferer.

Wise mothers keep it constantly in the house for emergencies, because it is needed at some time or other by every member of the family. Dr. Lousia Underhill, the medical superintendent of the Working Woman's Home of Chicago has kept her charges in perfect health by the use of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin whenever a stomach complaint was brought to her attention. No other laxative is used in the Home. Buy a bottle yourself today and watch the prompt and permanent results.

FREE TEST Those wishing to try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin before buying can have a free sample bottle sent to their home by addressing the company. This offer is to prove that the remedy will do as we claim, and is only open to those who have never taken it. Send for it if you have any symptoms of stomach, liver or bowel disease. Gentlest yet most effective laxative for children, women and old folks. Guaranteed permanent home cure. THE PUBLIC VERDICT: "No Laxative So Good and Sure as DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPsin." The product bears purity guarantee No. 17, Washington, D. C.

Ho, all ye merry little fish,

Beware the bait upon the hook
That dangles all about;
The gobbles uns will get you
If you don't watch out!

HARRY TANDY DEAD

PASSED AWAY SUDDENLY AT HOTEL IN DAWSON

Had Been in Failing Health For a Long Time.—A Native of Hopkinsville.

(From Friday's Daily)

Relatives in the city received the sad intelligence today of the sudden death of Harry G. Tandy at Dawson Springs. He had been in bad health for many months, but had apparently become much better up to a few days ago. He dropped dead in his room at the New Century hotel. An organic heart affection complicated with dropsy was the cause of his death. The remains were taken today to Paducah for burial and the funeral will take place Saturday afternoon. Mr. Tandy was a native of Hopkinsville and a son of Capt. David Tandy and the late Mrs. Kate Tandy. He was born in 1870. When a youth he went to Paducah and for a long time was in the newspaper business. He was one of most popular young politicians in Kentucky and was assistant secretary of state during Beckham's first administration and assistant superintendent of public instruction during the second. He was handsome in appearance and magnetic in manner and his friends throughout the state were innumerable. His wife, formerly Miss Elizabeth Sigenfelder, and one little daughter survive him. He was a nephew of Mrs. W. S. Davidson and Mrs. J. D. Morris, of this city.

WHAT THE KIDNEYS DO.

Their Unceasing Work Keeps Us Strong and Healthy.

All the blood in the body passes through the kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys filter the blood. They work night and day. When healthy they remove about 600 grains of impure matter daily, when unhealthy some part of this impure matter is left in the blood. This brings on many diseases and symptoms—pain in the back, headache, nervousness, hot, dry skin, rheumatism, gout, gravel, disorders of the eyesight and hearing, dizziness, irregular heart, debility, drowsiness, dropsy, deposits in the urine, etc. But if you keep the filters right you will have no trouble with your kidneys.

Mrs. W. I. Bailey, living on East Greenville St., Madisonville, Ky., says: "It is four years since I recommended Doan's Kidney Pills through our papers, and my confidence in them during the time which has elapsed has not been shattered in the least, but to the contrary, I learned more about them and can recommend them even more strongly. I said at that time that Mr. Bailey had suffered with kidney complaint off and on for a number of years, and had used almost every known remedy for this trouble but nothing brought permanent results. He finally learned of Doan's Kidney Pills and got a box. They benefited him in every way, more so than all the other kidney medicines he had ever tried. He has used them many times during the past four years, and they have never failed to give him relief from these severe attacks. I have used Doan's Kidney Pills myself for a weakened condition of the kidneys and they proved just as satisfactory in my case. We both think there is no remedy like Doan's Kidney Pills."

DEEP CRACKS FROM ECZEMA

Could Lay Slate-Pencil in One—Hands in Dreadful State—Disease Defied Remedies and Prescriptions—Suffered Seven Years.

FOUND A PERMANENT CURE IN CUTICURA

"I had eczema on my hands for about seven years and during that time I had used several so-called remedies, together with physicians' and druggists' prescriptions. The disease was so bad on my hands that I could lay a slate-pencil in one of the cracks and a rule placed across the hand would not touch the pencil. I used ———— Skin Lotion, ———— Remedy and others externally but I did not use any internal remedy, and while some gave partial relief, none relieved as much as did the first box of Cuticura Ointment. I made a purchase of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and my hands were perfectly cured after two boxes of Cuticura Ointment and one cake of soap were used. I now keep them on hand for sunburn, etc., and use Cuticura Soap for shaving. I could write a great deal more in reference to my cure but do not want to take more of your time. William H. Dean, Newark, Del., Mar. 28, 1907."

CHILD SUFFERED With Sores on Legs. Cured in Two Weeks by Cuticura.
"My little daughter suffered with sores on her legs all last summer. Her feet were sore, too, and she couldn't wear her shoes. I think she was poisoned by running through weeds but the doctor said it was eczema. I tried several remedies but failed to find a cure. Then I sent for Cuticura Soap and Ointment which cured her in two weeks. I find Cuticura the best I ever tried for any kind of sore and I hope I shall never be without it. Mrs. Gertrude Laughlin, Ivydale, W. Va., Apr. 25, 1907."

DANGER OF CATARRH

Unless Properly Treated With Hyomei, The Disease Becomes Serious.

Catarrhal troubles are far more dangerous than they seem at first thought. If you have catarrh, there is an irritated state of the mucous membrane and weakened tissues which afford an ideal lodgment and culture medium for disease germs, especially those of consumption.

You should get cured as quickly as possible before any dangerous germ that you may breathe lodge on the diseased tissue and work destruction in the throat and lungs.

The easiest, simplest, quickest, surest and cheapest way to cure catarrh is by the direct method, breathing Hyomei. This wonderful medicated air treatment does not drug and derange the stomach, but is breathed in, directly following and destroying all disease germs that may have been inhaled, and healing and vitalizing the tissues of the throat, nose and lungs so as to render catarrh and all other germ infections no longer possible.

The unusual way in which Hyomei is sold by L. L. Elgin is the best evidence of his confidence in the treatment and should dispel all doubt as to its curative properties. He agrees to refund the purchase price to anyone whom Hyomei fails to benefit, and you do not risk a cent in testing its healing virtues. A complete outfit costs but $1.00, if it helps you, not a cent if it does not do all that is claimed for it.

PROHIBITION WRIT

ISSUED BY JUDGE COOK IN SHERIFF'S CASE.

Prevents Judge Prowse From Trying Injunction Pending Hearing of Suit in Circuit Court.

Notice was made yesterday in the New Era of the filing of a petition in the office of the circuit clerk by Mr. Renshaw's attorneys, praying for an injunction against Mr. Smith to prevent him from occupying the sheriff's office and serving papers. Notice was given that on account of the absence from the county of Circuit Judge Cook, hearing of this case would be had this afternoon at 2 o'clock before County Judge Prowse.

The attorneys for Mr. Smith filed a petition alleging that Judge Prowse had lost jurisdiction in the matter by reason of an appeal having been taken from his court and a supersedeas issued, and that, furthermore he was a party to the suit in violating the title of the office.

The papers in the case were taken before Circuit Judge Cook at Eddyville, and he granted a temporary writ of prohibition which prevents Judge Prowse from acting in the case in a judicial capacity until the motion as contained in the petition filed by Mr. Smith's attorneys can be heard at the June term of court, the case being set for the first day of that term.

Notice has been given by Mr. Smith's attorneys that the taking of depositions in the case will begin Monday. Both sides undoubtedly owe it to the public to see that the case is promptly pushed to final adjudication.

RATES ARE SECURED

Yours Truly, W. A. Russell, Jr. P. A. This reduction will have the effect of bringing a large number of outsiders to Hopkinsville. No restriction is made as to the number in a party or anything of that kind.

ECZEMA NOW CURABLE.

All Itching Skin Diseases Which Are Not Hereditary Instantly Relieved By Oil of Wintergreen.

Can Eczema be cured? Some physicians say "Yes." Some say "No."

The real question is, "What is meant by Eczema?" If you mean, those scaly eruptions, those diseases which make their first appearance, not at birth but years afterward, and perhaps not until middle age—then there can no longer be any question that the germs of Eczema are curable.

Simple vegetable oil of wintergreen, mixed with other vegetable ingredients, will kill the germs that infest the skin. Apply this prescription to the skin, and instantly that awful itch is gone. The very moment the liquid is applied, that agonizing, tantalizing itch disappears, and continued applications of this external remedy, soon cure the disease.

We carry in stock this oil of wintergreen properly compounded into D. D. D. prescription. While we are not sure that it will cure all those cases of skin trouble which are inherited, we positively know that this D. D. D. prescription when rightly used, will cure every last case of genuine Eczema or other skin trouble, which did not exist at birth.

We know this. Anyway you, yourself, will know that D. D. D. prescription instantly takes away the itch the moment it is applied to the skin. Stop that itch today—Instantly. Just call at our store and try this refreshing and soothing liquid also ask about D. D. D. Soap.

OLD SORES KEPT OPEN BY BAD BLOOD

Whenever a sore refuses to heal, it is because of bad blood. If the place existed simply because the flesh was diseased at that particular spot, it would be an easy matter to apply some remedy directly to the ulcer that would kill the germ; or the diseased flesh might be removed by a surgical operation and a cure effected. But the very fact that old sores resist every form of local or external treatment, and even return after being cut away, shows that back of them is a morbid cause which must be removed before a cure can result.

The impurities in the blood which keep old sores open, come from different causes. A long spell of debilitating sickness, which breeds disease germs in the system, is a common source. These morbid impurities get into the circulation, and the blood becomes a polluted, nourishing the fibres and tissues of the flesh, irritates and ulcerates them, and continually discharges its impurities into the open sore, and prevents the place from healing. Another cause for bad blood is the retention in the system of the refuse and waste matters of the body. Those members whose duty it is to carry off the useless accumulations, become dull and sluggish in their action and leave their work imperfectly done, and this fermenting matter is absorbed into the circulation. The weakening or polluting of this vital fluid may also come from the results of some constitutional disease, while persons who are born with an hereditary blood taint are very apt to be afflicted with sores and ulcers.

Local or external applications can not cure an old sore, because they do not reach the blood. Such treatment may reduce the inflammation, lessen the pain and discharge, and tend to keep the place clean, and for this reason should be used, but it can do no real good toward effecting a permanent cure.

S. S. S. cures sores and ulcers by purifying the blood. It removes every impurity and taint from the circulation, and completely does away with the cause. When S. S. S. has cleansed the blood, the sore begins to heal, and it is not a surface cure, but the healing process begins at the bottom; soon the pain and inflammation leave, the discharge ceases, and the place fills in with firm, healthy flesh.

S. S. S. is purely vegetable, made only from roots and herbs, and is an absolutely safe medicine for persons of any age. Under the purifying and tonic effects of S. S. S. the system is built up, and those whose health has been impaired because of the drain and worry of an old sore, will be doubly benefited by its use. Special book on Sores and Ulcers and any medical advice free. S. S. S. is for sale at all drug stores.

ARRESTS IN TRIGG

OF MEN CHARGED WITH BEING NIGHT RIDERS.

Much Indignation There Over Action Of Soldiers.—County Attorney John Kelly's Startling Advice.

CADIZ, Ky., May 9.—Gen. Roger Williams arrived in this city this morning to investigate the arrests made in the northern part of the county Thursday night by troops.

The following despatch from Cadiz appears in the Courier-Journal:

CADIZ, Ky., May 8.—A detachment of fifteen soldiers entered the northern part of Trigg county Thursday night and arrested Harvey Sanders, Buck Sanders, Hooker Sanders and Tom Reddick, all of them charged with night riding, in warrants sworn out at Eddyville by Sanford Hall. Robert Stephens and Fred Merrick were arrested on the same charge today by Clarence Broadbent, sheriff of Trigg county.

Much indignation was expressed here today over the action of the soldiers in entering the county and making arrests, and John W. Kelly, the county attorney, and Sheriff Broadbent are especially indignant. Gen. Roger Williams was called up over the long distance telephone at Hopkinsville and Mr. Kelly told him the circumstances. Mr. Kelly said the soldiers had no authority to enter Trigg county and make arrests and that he would tell the citizens of Trigg county to "shoot them down like dogs" if the occurrence was repeated.

Mr. Kelly said that Gen. Williams agreed with him and was unable to understand why the warrants had not been issued in the regular way. The general said he would come to Trigg county tomorrow to look into the situation.

Sheriff Broadbent learned of the issuance of the six warrants Thursday night from Sheriff Cash, of Lyon county. Mr. Cash called up over the phone and asked Mr. Broadbent to serve the warrants and when the sheriff went to the northern end of the county this morning he found that the soldiers had been before him and taken four or the men. He arrested the other two and turned them over to the Lyon county authorities. Mr. Broadbent said he was informed by Mr. Cash that Judge Crumbaugh had given the warrants to the soldiers to serve.

ON THE VENDING OF MEATS IN HOPKINSVILLE.

Council Repeals Ordinances Requiring License—Special Meeting of Board Held Saturday Night

At a special meeting of the city council which was held Saturday night, the ordinance requiring hucksters and peddlers of meat to pay a city license of $10 and $25 respectively per year, was repealed.

Two causes were behind this action upon the part of the council. Primarily the reason behind the move was the objection which has been raised to the license ever since they were put in force. As it was under these ordinances a farmer could only sell the produce which he, himself, had raised, unless he took out a license. This prevented neighborhoods from combining and sending their produce to market and worked a hardship generally in this way. The repeal of the ordinances had been under consideration for some time just on these grounds. Other cities, notably Owensboro, which have the same license ordinance are also discussing the matter and Hopkinsville is one of the first to throw down the bars and open her markets to any and all without the payment of any license whatever.

The repeal of the meat peddlers ordinance was due more directly to increase in the price of fresh meats which has been made within the past few weeks. Prices of fresh meat have steadily risen during the past few weeks until now choice cuts are selling at 20c per pound, this price being reached Saturday morning. Peddlers of fresh meats have been selling meats cheaper than this and it was decided to remove the license against them.

The repeal of these license ordinances are expected to result in a largely increased business of peddlers of meat and vendors of farm and garden produce of every kind.

RAID IS PREVENTED

BY TIMELY ARRIVAL OF MAJ. ALBRECHT AND SOLDIERS

EARLINGTON, Ky., May 11.—A raid by Night Riders in Hopkins county was prevented last night by soldiers under the command of Major George W. Albrecht.

A body of masked men were seen by a number of citizens in the neighborhood of St. Charles.

The assembling of the outlaws was tipped off to the military authorities, and the local military company, with Maj. Albrecht in charge, hastened to the locality.

The Night Riders in some manner learned that their presence had been detected, and got out of the way before the troops arrived.

The Most Common Cause of Suffering.

Rheumatism causes more pain and suffering than any other disease, for the reason that it is the most common of all ills, and it is certainly gratifying to sufferers to know that Chamberlain's Pain Balm will afford relief, and make rest and sleep possible. In many cases the relief from pain, which is at first temporary, has become permanent, while in old people subject to chronic rheumatism, often brought on by dampness or change in the weather, a permanent cure cannot be expected; the relief from pain which this liniment affords is alone worth many times its cost. 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by Anderson & Fowler Drug Co., Incorporated.

Price 25c.—Sold by L. A. Johnsons.

WORDS ABOUT THE WEED.

News and Notes of Much Interest to All Who Are Connected With the Growing and Sale of Tobacco.

Business on the local tobacco market moved with a rush last week. More than twice as many hogsheads of tobacco were sold during the week than have been sold during any other previous week, the sales amounting to 314 hogsheads. Another most encouraging indication that business has opened up in earnest was the presence upon the floor of nearly every buyer and dealer on this market and some from neighboring markets, nearly all of whom made purchases. Among the buyers were—Rudolph Hach & Co., W. M. Hancock for the American Snuff Co., T. B. Fairleigh for the Italian Regie, E. M. Flack, broker, R. E. Cooper & Co., and Fallenstein Bros. The largest purchase was made by the Italian Regie. When the business for the week was closed there still were several deals pending which had not been consummated and it is probable that even heavier sales will be made this week.

Of the amount sold during the week, 289 hogsheads were disposed of by the local salesman for the Planters' Protective association. The salesroom was crowded with buyers all the week and almost as fast as types could be selected sales were made. Prices ranged from $7.00 to $10.00 for lugs and $10.50 to $18.00 for leaf, the demand being confined to lugs and low to medium leaf. Receipts by the association for the week were 397 hogsheads, making a total to date of 5361.

At the Society of Equity warehouse 25 hogsheads were sold at prices which were very satisfactory, lugs bringing from $7.50 to $11.50 and low leaf from $10.00 to $12.50. The demand here also was stronger and indications point to increased sales this week. Receipts of loose tobacco here are about over, though scattering crops continue to come in.

Reports from the association show that upwards of 10,000,000 pounds of tobacco have been prized by that organization in this county this season. The crop has all about been delivered now and the pricing houses are rapidly winding up, some of them having already closed down.

Reports from the country show that already a considerable part of the crop to be raised this year has already been set out with more to follow at once. This is unusually early and for the first time in many years such a thing as tobacco being set out before corn is planted is being seen.

PLANT BED SCRAPED

AND OFFICERS ARE PREPARING TO MAKE AN ARREST

Negro Member of the Association The Victim.—Happened in The Day Time.

While Albert McReynolds, a colored farmer who lives about five miles from town on the Princeton road, was in town Saturday morning, some one went to his tobacco plant beds and ruined them by digging them up and scraping them with hoes. Before coming to town McReynolds had gone out and looked over the beds, and both were in perfect condition at that time. When he returned at noon the damage had been done and judging from the tracks left about the beds, two parties were implicated. One of these was barefooted.

McReynolds came here and tried to secure bloodhounds with which to track down the miscreants but on account of there not being any of these dogs here now, he failed. He reported the matter to Judge Prowse and the officials took the matter up at once with the result that sufficient evidence has been secured upon which to base a warrant of arrest, but the name of the party charged with the crime is being withheld by the officers until the arrest can be made. McReynolds is a member of the Planters Protective association and is a highly respected negro.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from ten drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

The Athenaeum Banquet

From Friday's Daily)
The fifth annual banquet of the Athenaeum took place last night at Hotel Latham. These annual functions of the flourishing club are always looked forward to by the members and their friends with keen and delightful anticipations. All have been enjoyable, and last night the beauty of the scene and the brilliancy of the gathering, as well as the fine literary quality of the program, the happy spirit of congeniality among the guests, and the rapt appreciation with which the addresses were heard, fully preserved the high standard fixed by the former open sessions. And it should be added and emphasized that the excellent dinner served by Mr. and Mrs. Brewer was a most agreeable feature. The Athenaeum has never had more delicious dishes to discuss prior to the oratory on such occasions.

The menu follows:
How shall we take things, boiled or stewed.
Alive or after life has fled;
With garnishing or strictly nude.
Or shall we flee them all with dread?
One meal or many? Closedest.
In beaveries or on the streets?
Our lives are hanging by a thread—
Oh, tell us, tell us, what to eat!

—Stoddard
Chicken Bouillion in Cups
Olives Tomatoes Mayonnaise
Crab Meat—Maryland Style
Braised Spring Chicken
French Peas in Cases
Potatoes Parisian
Small Biscuit
Neapolitan Ice Cream Strawberries
Assorted Cakes Crackers
Roquefort Cheese Coffee

The addresses were charming, and President H. Clay Smith was an admirable toastmaster. As appropriate to a purely social occasion, the remarks of the speakers were mainly in a lighter vein, yet without being either trivial or flippant.

The program of toasts is here appended:
President H. Clay Smith.
.....C. H. H. Branch
.....Toastmaster
"Under a spreading chestnut tree,"
The Smith, a mighty man is he"
—Longfellow
Publicity.....Selden Y. Trimble
"Wisdom crieth out: she uttereth her voice in the streets."
—Proverbs.

Hoptown on the Hike.....
.....C. H. H. Branch
"With its best foot first,
An' the road a-sliding past,"
—Kipling.

If Youth But Knew.....John Stites
"My salad days when I was green in judgment."

Copyrights, Labels and Trade-marks.....John C. Duffy Labels—"When you put a label on a man he ceases to grow."
—Hubbard

Trademark—"A mark by which one's wares are known in trade."
—John Dee vs. Richard Roe.

Finally.....Mayor C. M. Meacham
The first two responses were from new members, and each proved himself to be a valuable acquisition to the oratorical talent of the club. Mr. Trimble is a finished, graceful speaker and he presented, attractively mingled with gentle satire, some genuine food for thought concerning the right and wrong sorts of publicity. Rev. Mr. Branch, in his brisk and buoyant style, talked delightfully of what Hopkinsville had and needed. Mr. Branch wants the streets properly numbered, the bill boards reformed, the old cemetery looked after and the whole town beautified. With pungent yet kindly wit he aroused his hearers to a sense of duty in these matters, and the applause that followed his speech was prolonged.

Mr. Stites' address on "If Youth But Knew," was a gem of eloquence and rare humor. He indicted, prosecuted and convicted the trembling folks around him of the crime of growing old and he compelled them to look at themselves through the eyes of the youths they used to be. Specially was he convincing in his advice on how to be happy through married and the proper manner of raising children. The joyous whimsicality of his argument was neatly enhanced by the severely serious manner in which he presented it.

Mr. Duffy had a triple-jointed subject and he handled it in a captivating way. Felicity of diction, freshness and originality characterized his remarks and his talk was one of the most interesting the club has had the pleasure of listening to.

The toastmaster read a despatch from Judge W. T. Fowler, who was to have spoken on the puzzling subject "If—," stating that he had been detained in Louisville by the Republican state convention and would be unable to attend the banquet. At the last moment, Mayor Charles M. Meacham was substituted on the toast list and his happy talk was a fitting climax to the very pleasant occasion. His droll witticisms and persiflage kept the diners in a constant uproar of merriment.

During the reception in the parlors and while the courses of the dinner were being served, an exquisite program of music was rendered by Lebkuecher's orchestra.

Those present were: Pres. H. Clay Smith, Mr. T. J. McKeynolds, secretary; Mrs. McKeynolds and Mrs. Poynter, of Mississippi; Mr. John Stites and Miss Sallie George Blakey, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Hanbery, Rev. and Mrs. C. H. H. Branch, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Downer, Dr. Edmund Harrison and Miss Harrison, Dr. T. W. Blakey and Miss Lou Blakey, Dr. and Mrs. F. M. Stites, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Underwood, Mr. John Byars and Miss Willie Rust, Mr. Chas. J. McPherson, Mr. S. Y. Trimble, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Trice, Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Barker, Miss Carothers and Mr. Jas O. COMES TO THIS CITY

MR. SHELLABARGER BUYS INTEREST IN ACME MILLS

Prominent and Wealthy, Decatur, Ill. Citizen.—Will be the Superintendent of "A" and "B."

Mr. Lucian C. Shellabarger, of Decatur, Ill., has taken an interest in the Acme Mills & Elevator company, and has been elected one of its directors, and given the official position of superintendent of their two mills, "A" and "B," and has entered upon his duties.

Mr. Shellabarger comes of an old milling family, who are now, and have been for quite a number of years, in the milling business in Decatur, Ill., and also in Kansas, operating flouring mills and a line of elevators. He has a thorough and practical knowledge of milling in all of its branches, and brings with him not only this knowledge but also influence in milling circles, and his connection with the Acme Mills & Elevator company will place them in close touch with their western elevators. He expects in the fall to move his family to Hopkinsville, which consists of his wife and two children; they are at present in New York, and will spend the summer there.

Mr. Shellabarger visited Hopkinsville last winter, and after going through the plants of the Acme Mills & Elevator company, and making a thorough examination of them, and being well pleased, decided to take an interest in the company. Since then he has made one or two trips to Hopkinsville with this in view. Mr. Shellabarger will be quite an acquisition to Hopkinsville, both in business and social circles, and we extend to him and his family a hearty welcome.

His father, Mr. D. S. Shellabarger, is president of the Decatur National bank, of Decatur, Ill., one of the largest banking institutions of Decatur, and is a man of considerable means and influence.

The connection of Mr. Shellabarger with the Acme Mills & Elevator company does not in any way make any change in the present officials of the company.

RICHARDS-RIVES

Hopkinsville society had a pleasant surprise Monday night when the announcement was wired here from Nashville, Tenn., of the marriage of Mrs. Sallie McDaniel Richards and Senator Frank Rives. Rosy rumors of an approaching union of the popular couple had been rife, but even the most intimate friends had no knowledge of the date of the happy event. Senator Rives and Mrs. Richards left Hopkinsville on the Dixie Flyer Monday morning and were joined in the holy bonds of wedlock at 5:10 in the afternoon. The ceremony took place at Vauxhall place in the apartments of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Morrison—Mrs. Morrison was formerly Miss Bessie Walker, of this city—and was impressively performed by the Rev. Dr. Charles W. Byrd, pastor of the West End Methodist church of Nashville, in the presence of a few friends.

The Nashville American says: "The bride was very handsome in a white and black tailored gown. She is a very attractive young woman, beautiful and graceful in manner. Mr. Rives is a prominent lawyer of Kentucky."

The Nashville Tennessean says: "Senator Rives was one of the leaders of the prohibition fight in Kentucky and was responsible for introduction of the county unit bill. He is an exceedingly brilliant man. Mrs. Rives is a charming woman and has many friends and admirers in this city as well as in her home city who will be interested in the announcement of her marriage."

Senator and Mrs. Rives will be at the Maxwell house several days and will return to Hopkinsville to reside the latter part of the week, and will be received here with showers of good wishes and congratulations by their wide circle of friends and admirers.

Mrs. Rives is a lovely and accomplished young woman whose graciousness and charming manner have made her a favorite. Senator Rives is one of the foremost young lawyers and Democratic politicians of the state, and one of the most influential members of the Kentucky senate. The marriage is the consummation of an extended and happy courtship.

Several business men of Pembroke are reported to have received by mail, notices signed "N. R." notifying them not to buy goods in Clarksville or Hopkinsville. The notice were typewritten on carbon copies. It is generally believed that they were sent by certain interested parties whose identity may shortly be disclosed.

Mrs. Fuqua's Death.

Died in LaFayette, at the LaFayette hotel, Mrs. Betty Fuqua Monday evening. She was forty-nine years of age and had been confined to her room and bed for seven years with consumption. Her friends have been expecting her death for several weeks. Mrs. Betty Fuqua's many friends in Christian county will remember she was Miss Betty Cooper, the second daughter of Capt. Hugh C. Cooper and Mrs. Betty Cooper, and married Esq. A. J. Fuqua of LaFayette, nearly twenty-seven years ago.

Mrs. Fuqua leaves three sons now grown young men. To those of us who knew Betty Fuqua well, I need not speak of her fine Christian character; a bright, happy and lovely person in all the walks of life, devoted to her friends and her church.

To her many friends and the sisters, brothers and her boys that she loved so well we can say that while we mourn her loss to us here, we mourn not as those that have no hope, for we know that she has but passed over to that other side and has met so many friends of her childhood years, and where we all hope to meet by and bye. The funeral will take place at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

COURT'S JUNE TERM

STRONG CHARGE DELIVERED BY JUDGE COOK

Pays Special Attention to Trusts and Night Riders.—High Praise For Association.

(From Monday's Daily)

With more than usual interest manifested, the June term of circuit court began a four weeks' session this morning with Judge Thomas P. Cook on the bench. The court was formally opened with a fervent prayer by Judge W. P. Winfree.

The first thing to come up, and the one which was largely responsible for the interest exhibited, was the sheriff question. As soon as the court was formally called to order, Douglas Bell, attorney for J. M. Renshaw, made a motion that Mr. Renshaw be recognized as the sheriff for this term of court and sworn in as such. Judge Cook promptly overruled the motion and called for Sheriff David Smith and his deputies, J. W. Smith and Lucian M. Cravens, and swore them in as the officers in that capacity for the court.

Much speculation had been indulged in as to what action would be taken as to who was the lawful sheriff, but it was all over in less time than it takes to tell it. When the grand jurors were called around and had taken their places, Sheriff Smith formally summoned them to act as members of the jury. This was due to the fact that they had been summoned by Mr. Renshaw and by the refusal of the court to recognize him. It was necessary that before taking the oath of office that they should be summoned by the authorized sheriff.

The grand jury was impaneled as follows:

R. H. Kelly, Foreman.
Wm. Dudley, John Southall,
Bud Sharber, Harry Edwards,
K. L. Moore, R. W. Harris,
Tommy Kling, A. R. King,
Alex Shaw, G. W. Orange,
B. P. Alexander.

Judge Cook's charge to the grand jury was perhaps the strongest which he has ever delivered here. In his opening remarks he briefly, but forcibly, called the attention of the jury to their responsibility under the oath which they had taken. He then paid special attention to the offenses of perjury, raffling, violations of the game laws, the trusts, the sending of threatening letters and night riding.

In reference to perjury, Judge Cook said that this was the most serious thing with which the present day court had to contend; that a man who probably would not stoop to any methods of violations of law in anything else would make false statements when his own interests or those of a relative or friend were at stake. Especially did he plead for indictment if possible of persons who belong to the better classes of society.

Regarding the trusts Judge Cook reiterated his belief that the laws of Kentucky were not sufficient to reach and punish corporations operating under the laws of other states, but stated that the judges of the court of appeals had said that the laws were ample and he wanted the jury to return indictments if they found sufficient evidence so that the cases might be heard and set on up for their consideration. He declared that the law was sufficient to reach local agents of the trusts and that these should be brought before the court if it could be shown that they were violating the law. He condemned the gigantic corporations in the strongest terms and he said that if they were allowed to continue to oppress the people as they had done in the past it would reduce them to practical slavery by first making paupers of them. He told the jury that the prosecution under the law was the only means of reaching the trusts and it was up to the grand juries to put the cases into court.

Taking up night riding, Judge Cook read and analyzed the sections of the statutes known as the Ku Klux law. He took up each provision separately and showed in detail what these provisions meant and how seriously the lawmakers had regarded the offense when they framed the statute. He then called attention to the various forms which night riding had taken and to the incontrovertible fact that hundreds of men were undoubtedly guilty of this crime throughout this part of the state. He declared that there was no excuse for any such crimes and that every person who was guilty should be punished to the full extent of the law. He denied that

IN THE SADDLE

Torch is Applied to John Scott's Large Tobacco Factory at Olmstead, in Logan County.—Owner is Agent of Italian Regie.

OLMSTEAD, Ky., June 1.—A band of Night Riders celebrated the early hours of the Sabbath by burning a large tobacco factory at this place.

The property which was destroyed belonged to John Scott, a prominent tobacco buyer for the Italian Regie trade.

Discharged Firearms.

The advent of the Night Riders was signalized by the firing of guns and pistols. Nobody offered any resistance and the few who peeped out of windows say they could not tell how many were in the gang or whether they were masked.

The riders applied the torch to the Scott building and it was burned to the ground. The loss is about $5,000, with $2,000 insurance.

Two years ago Scott was waited on in the day time by organization farmers, who requested him not to buy tobacco.

Two months later Night Riders called him from his home, and it is reported told him either to quit buying tobacco, leave the country or suffer death at their hands.

Sold His Home.

Scott sold his home and moved to Russellville. He placed his factory on the market, but was not able to sell it.

He rented the building to James Browder, an association prizier. Browder had about finished his work for the season and shipped out all the tobacco.

There was nothing in the building when it burned except type samples and two carloads of fertilizer.

Mr. Scott has been one of the largest purchasers of association tobacco at Russellville.

WORDS ABOUT THE WEED.

News and Notes of Much Interest to All Who Are Connected With the Growing and Sale of Tobacco.

Good sales with firm prices marked the local tobacco market the past week. The demand was heavier than the previous week, resulting in increased sales, though not so much as have been sold at other times during the season. Considerably over 200 hogheads were disposed of.

The Planters' Protective association sold 192 hogs at prices in full accord with the schedule adopted by the organization. As the season advances the buyers spend more time at the salesroom and keep in close touch with what is on hand in anticipation of any orders which they may receive. Receipts amounted to 184 hogheads for the week, or 6,039 for the season. The bulk of the tobacco has been delivered and receipts from now on will grow lighter rapidly. The sales last week make the total for the season about 2,000, or one-third of the receipts.

With the Society of Equity business was good at prices ranging from $7 to $10 for lugs and $10.50 to $14 for leaf, the actual number of hogheads sold not being reported.

Reports from the Planters' Protective association show that tobacco all over the district is moving steadily, with frequent big sales. Prices are uniform in accordance with the schedule, and are satisfactory to every member.

The outlook for the growing crop is more discouraging now than it has been at any time. Bugs and other insects have destroyed some plants, the beds were not burned properly in other sections, the seed were evidently bad in some cases, the result being that a shortage of plants is reported frequently. It is no unusual thing for a farmer to be approached with an offer for his plant beds. The crop which has been transplanted to the field is also said to be suffering from cut worms and grasshoppers and to be dying on the hill. About eighty-five per cent is estimated to be set out.

conditions necessitated any such recourse to violence. He bespoke the highest admiration for the association and declared it was the only successful weapon which had been found with which to combat the trust and therefore it should be maintained in its original aims and purposes and that it should go on further elevating and bettering the farmers than it had already done. By reason, though, of the fact that Night Riders invariably worked under the cloak of this organization he said that they were thereby the most dangerous foe which now confronted it. Every expression which he had seen in print from the association officials had invariably condemned the outrages and he believed they were sincere in making these statements and refused to believe that the rank and file of the association were either in sympathy with or encouraged the evil-doers. He expressed an abiding faith that organized good is always stronger than organized evil and that the time must speedily come when the supremacy of the law will prevail.

Judge Cook's charge was listened to with the closest interest by everyone in the courtroom and many expressions of satisfaction were heard concerning it.

MASKED MEN IN MOB

TAKF NEGRO FROM JAIL AND END HIS LIFE

DIXON, Ky., June 1.—The race riot which occurred March 14, at Providence, a village near here, had a sequel early Sunday morning in the lynching of Jake McDowell, a negro who had confessed to being one of a party of negroes who killed one traveling man and wounded another.

The lynchers appeared at the Dixon jail where McDowell was confined awaiting trial, about 2 o'clock. There were but ten men in the party. All of them, save the leader, were masked. A few shots brought the jailer to the door when he was overpowered and compelled to open McDowell's cell. Mounting the negro on an extra horse, the party proceeded out of town, two shots being heard when they reached open country. The negro was shortly afterwards found dead by the roadside, having been stabbed and shot twice.

The race riot at Providence began with the shooting of Marshal Smith Childers by a negro. The negro was captured and the officers and prisoners pursued by a mob of whites. A number of negroes also armed themselves and were lying in wait for the mob of whites when they fired into a party of traveling men by mistake. J. B. Barry, of Louisville, received wounds from which he died, and J. B. Parks, of Chattanooga, was so seriously wounded his life was despaired of.

Piles are easily and quickly checked with Dr. Shoop's Magic Ointment. To prove it I will mail a small trial box as a convincing test. Simply address Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. THE TIME TO BUILD IS RIGHT NOW.

Why?

First---

Because nearly everything that enters into the construction of a house, except labor, is cheaper than it has been for three years. This is owing to the panic and the demoralized trade conditions resulting therefrom. Prices may go back, however, when business over the country generally resumes.

Second---

There is less building being done here now than is usual at this season of the year. We have always pursued the policy of giving employment to all our men when we could do so without actual loss, in order to bridge over dull seasons. We believe this is best for us, best for the community and certainly is a help to the men.

If you contemplate building this year you will save money by getting at it without loss of time

TO THE PEOPLE OF CHRISTIAN COUNTY.

The Law and Order league of Hopkinsville and Christian county invites every good citizen into its membership and urges upon him, as a sacred duty, that he give his hearty aid and full co-operation to this organized movement, through the strict enforcement of law, for the betterment of moral conditions in our town and county. This is the one purpose of the league; the single end it seeks to reach.

Without a motive of selfishness or malice, having no animosities or bitterness, influenced in no way by any political, commercial or ecclesiastical allegiance, the league, with the welfare of the whole county and its people at heart, proposes vigorously to combat, and only by legitimate means, crime and evil and whatever is a menace to good government and Christian civilization.

The league is neither an armed body nor is it connected with any armed or military body. Our objects are definite and none of them concealed, and no one need mistake or misjudge them. The only secrecy connected with the organization lies in the identity of the membership, and that only for their protection from the ill-disposed. Any person may reveal his own membership. Hundreds of the good, patriotic and public spirited citizens of the town and county are enrolled—farmers, business and professional men, ministers of the gospel, mechanics, laborers and people in every walk of life.

All that the league stands for is embraced in its name—Law and Order. Here are its objects as stated in the constitution:

Its purpose shall be to secure and preserve order by the enforcement of laws already in existence; by the formation and enforcement of such laws as may seem necessary, from time to time, through the ordinary methods of securing legislation; by the encouraging of such officials as are zealous in the enforcement of laws; by the removal of such officials as are dishonest or inefficient, through the proper methods of such procedure; and by endeavoring to secure the election of proper officials, regardless of party affiliation.

This league, in common with all reasonable persons, fully realizes that the welfare of the citizens of Christian county, whether they live in the town or in the country, is inseparable; their relations inter-dependent, their interest mutual. They are bound together by the closest ties of family and kinship and social and business intercourse. The prosperity of the one invariably affects the other. The farmers own a large percentage of the bank, mill and manufactory stock and have a voice in the management of the business of firms and corporations, while a large proportion of the citizenship of the town comes from the country. At the same time, the title of many an acre of land is owned by the resident of the city, while his relatives and friends are citizens of country districts. Ownership, kinship and interest are interwoven, and the city belongs not only to its residents, but to the people of the country as well. Town and county combined are but a great community, and its people know that permanent peace and prosperity depend upon the maintenance of the law, to disregard or despise which tears asunder the whole social fabric and produces a condition nothing less than anarchy. It is unnecessary to recall the harrowing and disgraceful incidents which in the past months have brought reproach to our region, or to foretell the inevitable consequences of a spirit of lawlessness unchecked; a spirit which makes criminals of men, whatever their motives might be, and leaves a legacy of shame for their children. Indeed, not less deplorable is the terror or shock among women and children these deeds have caused, than the seed of recklessness and rebellion to constituted authority sown in the minds of impressionable youth—these who are our future hope and dependence. The Law and Order league contends, and every good citizen will agree, that men must not take the law into their own hands, legislate, sit in judgment and execute. The regulation by mask, torch, whip and deadly weapon of the whiskey traffic, the morals of the neighborhood or the price of farm products is equally intolerable, and when the lash is laid on the backs of men and women, barns are burned and towns raided, it is a time that every citizen, who is true to himself, his family and his fellow-men, should take a firm, unmistakable stand on the side of right and justice and determine that lawlessness shall be stopped and evildoers punished. The law must be vindicated or this county and this state will cease to be a habitation for lawabiding, enlightened men and women.

The Law and Order league of Hopkinsville and Christian county begs all citizens, whether of the town or the country, to join hands in enforcing the laws of the land. If the laws are bad, let us have them repealed. If new laws are needed, let us demand their enactment. And let public opinion so strengthen the law that, without soldiers to patrol, every citizen may be protected in his home, his rights and liberty, and evildoers may know that they must suffer the penalty of crime. To encourage and support the men and measures whose advancement will best conserve the peace of society, and to lend its best effort to secure the enforcement of the laws of our city, county and state, these are the objects of the Law and Order league, and to all who are in sympathy with these worthy purposes a most cordial invitation to join the organization in extended.

R. H. BROWN DEAD

Former Citizen Passes Away At His Home in Nashville.

(From Tuesday's Daily)

Relatives in the city were apprised today by wire of the death of Robert H. Brown at Nashville, Tenn. The deceased was a former resident of Hopkinsville and the announcement of his death will cause much sorrow among his wide circle of friends. He was in the monument business here for many years. Mr. Brown removed with his family to Nashville one year ago. He was about thirty-seven years of age and was a member of a pioneer Kentucky family. He leaves a family consisting of his wife, two children and his mother. Mr. Brown was an honorable and upright gentleman and enjoyed the esteem of all who knew him. The remains will be brought to Hopkinsville tomorrow morning for burial in Riverside cemetery.

Making Good.

There is no way of making lasting friends like "Making Good;" and Doctor Pierce's medicines well exemplify this, and their friends, after more than two decades of popularity, are numbered by the hundreds of thousands. They have "made good" and they have not made drunkards.

A good, honest, square-deal medicine of known composition is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It still enjoys an immense sale, while most of the preparations that have come into prominence in the earlier period of its popularity have "gone by the board" and are never more heard of. There must be some reason for this long-time popularity and that is to be found in its superior merits. When once given a fair trial for weak stomach, or for liver and blood affections, its superior curative qualities are soon manifest; hence it has survived and grown in popular favor, while scores of less meritorious articles have suddenly flashed into favor for a brief period and then been as soon forgotten.

For a torpid liver with its attendant indigestion, dyspepsia, headache, perhaps dizziness, foul breath, nasty coated tongue, with bitter taste, loss of appetite, with distress after eating, nervousness and debility, nothing is so good as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It's an honest, square-deal medicine with all its ingredients printed on bottle-wrapper—no secret, no hocus-pocus humbug, therefore don't accept a substitute that the dealer may possibly make a little bigger profit. Insist on your right to have what you call for.

Don't buy Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription expecting it to prove a "cure-all." It is only advised for woman's special ailments. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Less advertised than some preparations sold for like purposes, its sterling curative virtues still maintain its position in the front ranks, where it stood over two decades ago. As an invigorating tonic and strengthening nerve it is unequalled. It won't satisfy those who want "booster," for there is not a drop of alcohol in it.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, the original Little Liver Pills, although the first pill of their kind in the market, still lead, and when once tried are ever afterwards in favor. Easy to take as candy—one to three a dose. Much imitated but never equaled.

DIRECT UPON STOMACH

Possibility of Administering Local Treatment to That Organ.

After a series of experiments covering a period of many years, a well-known specialist in stomach disorders, discovered that to administer local treatment to the stomach was a possibility.

As a result of his study of the diseases of digestion and nutrition, he prepared a prescription called "Mi-o-na" stomach tablets that acts directly upon the stomach and bowels, increasing their strength and power to digest whatever food is eaten and quickly restoring health to these important organs.

Headaches, giddiness, palpitations, heart-burn, sleeplessness, flatulence, bad taste in the mouth, irritability, drowsiness, coated tongue and full feeling after eating, are but a few of the many distressing results of indigestion. Mi-o-na never fails to dispel all these troubles, and all disorders of the stomach soon disappear when the remedy is used.

If you ever have the slightest symptom of indigestion or weak stomach, check its progress at once with Mi-o-na. The remedy is scientific, yet simple, and is fully guaranteed to be harmless under serial No. 1418 of the United States Pure Food and Drugs Law.

L. L. Elgin believes so strongly in the curative powers of Mi-o-na in all diseases of the digestive organs he gives a guarantee with every 50-cent box to refund the money if the remedy does not do all that is claimed for it. He takes all the risk and you lose nothing but your indigestion when you buy Mi-o-na, and it is a good loss.

IF WOMEN ONLY KNEW

What a Heap of Happiness It Would Bring to Hopkinsville Homes.

Hard to do housework with an aching back. Bring your hours of misery at leisure or at work.

If women only knew the cause—that backache pains come from sick kidneys, 'twould save much needless woe. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys. Hopkinsville people endorse this:

Miss L. A. Hester, 826 North Main street, Hopkinsville, Ky., says: "I honestly believe that there is little need of any one suffering the torture of backache when such an effective remedy as Doan's Kidney Pills can be purchased at L. A. Johnson's drug store. The prompt and thorough relief which followed their use in my case has given me abiding faith in their merits. In the summer of 1908, I was suffering greatly from soreness and lameness across the small of my back and other difficulties arising from a weakness of the kidneys. Two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills was all I required to free me from the distressing pain in my back and restore my kidneys to a good, healthy condition. I recommend Doan's Kidney Pills at that time and during the four years that have elapsed I still hold the same good opinion of the remedy."

HARRY THAW IS INSANE, SAYS MR. LITTLETON

"There is Little Love Lost Between Harry and His Wife.—Jerome Criticized.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., May 30.—"Harry Thaw is undoubtedly insane," said Martin W. Littleton Tuesday. "Most of the time he is a genial companionable, lovable fellow. In such moods it is a pleasure to be with him and he is perfectly rational. On the other hand you strike him at certain times and on certain subjects and he is a raving maniac. Some days he is as stinging as the devil and on other occasions he is as generous as a king. To get along with him a lawyer must treat him like an animal and be a perfect brute."

"There is little love lost between Harry and his wife. The one good and best impulse of the lives of both of them came when they decided to make the famous stand in the trial of the husband. She does not really love him, and you cannot convince her that she is morally wrong to entertain other men while married to Thaw. In other words, she cannot be convinced that she is morally wrong along some lines. All the world might try to argue with her along this line and couldn't influence her."

"William Travers Jerome is not a good lawyer, the opinion of the world to the contrary. You can set a trap for him and he not only falls into it, but in his impulsiveness rushes into it. In lawsuits he gets mixed up and is easily tangled. He is learned and brilliant, but his learning is not strictly that of a great lawyer. In spite of all this one cannot help but love the man. His personality is irresistible."

BETTER THAN MEDICINE.

Breathe Hyomei's Tonic Healing and Be Cured of Catarrh.

Nature has a remedy for catarrh, a treatment that is far better than dosing the stomach with medicine. It is the healing oils and balsams of Hyomei which medicates the air you breathe, reaching the most remote air cells in the nose, throat and lungs, killing all catarrhal germs, and restoring health to the mucous membrane.

In using Hyomei you are treating your catarrhal troubles with the only natural remedy, for it gives a curative air bath to the air passages that has as powerful healing and antiseptic effect as that found in the mountains where the pine forests give off their fragrant and healing balsams.

Breathe the invigorating and healing Hyomei, and see how quickly you will get relief from your catarrhal troubles. L. L. Elgin has seen so many cures, even of the worst cases of catarrh, with offensive breath, raising of mucus, frequent sneezing, droppings in the throat and spasmodic coughing, that he feels warranted in selling Hyomei under an absolute guarantee to refund the money if it does not do all that is claimed for it. He takes all the risk. If the treatment does not help you, there will not be a penny's expense, while if it cures, the cost is nominal, as a complete Hyomei outfit

"PEACE" RESTORED

AND BOYCOTT IS TO BE CALLED OFF.

What Business Men Agree To Do With Hope Of Getting Trade Back.

CLARKSVILLE, Tenn., May 30.—Peace has been restored between Clarksville and the surrounding country. Several weeks ago a boycott was instituted by unknown parties against the merchants of this city and mercantile interests suffered seriously. It seems that a misunderstanding has existed here between the citizens of Clarksville in regard to the guards which are employed here and the sheriff's posse ordered by Gov. Patterson on account of the different Night Riding depredations. Prominent citizens in both town and country, realizing the conditions, held a conference, reached an agreement which has been signed by nearly every merchant and very many prominent farmers, and it is believed will effectually put a stop to the so-called boycott.

Among other things the merchants' and citizens' agreement is that no armed men shall appear on the streets of Clarksville, except regular policemen and such extra policemen as may be appointed by the city authorities, these latter to wear badges to show they are performing police duty; that private watchmen employed at the warehouses shall not be permitted to go armed except while on the premises they are employed to guard; that no armed band of men shall be permitted to leave the town of Clarksville and go out into the country, by night or day, unless under command of the Sheriff or some other officer appointed by him; that members of the civil posse recently appointed shall not wear uniform or carry arms except when on duty at the armory or when called out to suppress disturbances in the town, at all other times they shall act as citizens and appear only in citizens' clothing; all persons going armed illegally or otherwise violating the law shall be promptly arrested and punished by the proper authorities; that a joint committee shall be appointed of the farmers and the merchants of the town, to whom all grievances can be submitted and who shall see that the recommendations are faithfully carried into execution.

The farmers' agreement says: "We, the undersigned farmers, have carefully read the proposition submitted by the merchants and business men of Clarksville, and being very desirous to settle the present unfortunate differences, we accept same as satisfactory agreement, and with the understanding that these recommendations will be carried out in good faith we will do all in our power to restore the good feeling and will exert ourselves to have cordial business relations restored between the town and country, such as once existed. We believe the interest of the town and country are mutual, and both must suffer or prosper together; and therefore recommend that when grievances are redressed as above proposed, all then shall renew cordial business relations with the town and that the past be forgotten."

Mayor Northington is out in a card endorsing the agreement and assuring the people that he will see that all provisions are carried out in Clarksville.

Col. Childers has issued a statement assuring the committee of his co-operation and settling forth orders issued to and governing members of his posse in conformity to the agreement entered into.

Judge C. W. Tyler issues a card endorsing the movement and speaking encouraging words.

LAW AND ORDER LEAGUE

The statement of the Law and Order League of Hopkinsville, and Christian county is a fair and frank reiteration of the honorable purposes and aims of the organization and ought to serve to dispel a good deal of popular misinformation, much of which is honest, while no little has been spread broadcast by designing and malicious persons with a view to damaging, for obvious reasons, the league's influence. The statement hews to the line and ignores the lies and slander. The league stands for law and order, and that is all. It is not for the trust, and very certainly it is not against the farmer. It simply has nothing to do with the tobacco question. Its activities are solely along moral lines. The reports industriously circulated that it is an armed "home guard," that it had Dave Smith ousted from his office, that it has "boycotted" anybody, and similar stuff, are either merely incorrect or viciously false, depending, of course, upon the fellow who is the circulator.

LEAD AS ARGUMENT

A warrant of arrest has been issued for Todd Hord, charging him with shooting and wounding James A. King. The arrest has not yet been made. The young men live near Barnes in the northern part of the county.

The shooting occurred Sunday and is said to have been outcome of a quarrel which took place several days before. Mr. King is not seriously wounded.

CENTENNIAL CELEBRATIONS ARE INSPIRING

MEMORY OF JEFFERSON DAVIS IS HONORED

BOTH HERE AND AT FAIRVIEW

Beautiful Tributes Are Paid to the First and Last President of the Confederacy.

Both at Fairview, where the first and only president of the Southern Confederacy was born, and in this city, where he was personally known and greatly loved, there were appropriate observances of the birth of Jefferson Davis. The exercises here were under the auspices of the Christian county chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy.

The Daughters were in charge of an excellent basket dinner, which was served at Odd Fellows' hall and which the veterans and many of their friends greatly enjoyed. This afternoon an interesting program is being given at the Ninth Street Presbyterian church, the inclement weather preventing the holding of the meeting at the cemetery. The invocation was offered by Dr. W. L. Nourse, and Southern airs were sung by the school children. The annual address was delivered by Rev. C. H. H. Branch, and Rev. G. C. Abbott closed the exercises with prayer.

At Fairview the exercises were held in the memorial church on the site of the Davis home. After an invocation by the Rev. W. H. Vaughan, there was an address of welcome by Dr. E. S. Stewart, of Fairview. Dr. Millard A. Jenkins, of this city, then delivered an oration. This completed the forenoon program and a bountiful dinner was then served by the hospitable people of the community.

One of the features of the celebration was the address of the Rev. Dr. Millard A. Jenkins, pastor of the First Baptist church of Hopkinsville, his subject being "The Men Who Wore the Gray." The historian is yet to be born, said Dr. Jenkins, who will justly tell the world the whole story of the bravery and heroism of the iron-nerved men who wore the gray in the sixties, but the day is coming when he who tells of America's greatness will point to the Confederate soldier as a hero and patriot, whose gallant deeds and noble virtues have enriched the history of a great and prosperous nation. Dr. Jenkins characterized the Confederate soldier as representative of all that noblest in southern citizenship. Never has the world seen such an army. It was not an army of hirelings, but purest blood of the south—and none purer coursed through the veins of the nation—was offered on the altar of rights and liberties. In the rank and file, as well as its leadership, was exhibited a sturdy pluck and indomitable courage unsurpassed in all the annals of the world. These men in gray knew how to die with their faces to the foe, but they knew no fear of the enemy. Death they preferred to dishonor and the word despair was not written in their language. Federal generals were discussing once the report that Stonewall Jackson spent much time in prayer before going into battle. One remarked, "Well, I don't know anything about General Jackson's religion, but I know this, if he takes a notion to go to Heaven, all Hell can't keep him out." Dr. Jenkins told of the wonderful generalship produced by the Confederacy, and of the spirit and endurance of the men with the guns and the "rebel yell." He told of the hardship they were compelled to undergo, such as were unknown by the northern soldiers, and now half starved and half clad, they followed the stars and bars until their resources were exhausted and, overcome by superior force, they were forced to lay down their arms. No sublimer record of courage was ever in the world manifested than that of the south's soldiers at the front and by their mothers, wives and daughters at home, a courage only equalled when, able to carry no further on the point of bayonet the shattered hopes of the dying republic, they turned footsteps homeward and set themselves to the task of rebuilding their wasted land.

of those principles and ideals which need ever to be incorporated into the thought and aspiration of young manhood as the safeguard for the future. He spoke at length of the Confederate soldier as an unselfish patriot, a model citizen, and a man of chivalry. Said the speaker: "Sons and daughters of the Confederacy, your sires were patriots and fought for principle and may the day never come when you will fail to brand as prince of liars and calumniators the dirty dog who dares to call them traitors." In conclusion he spoke of the man in gray as one who feared, and feared only, the God of Battles. The spirit of Christ pervaded the ranks of Confederacy. He spoke of the south's remarkable material prosperity and her rapid accumulation of wealth until no one could estimate her wonderful future. "The South," he said, "has thrown off her robe of ashes, clambered out from beneath the debris of her wreckage, and once more, her hair decked with orange blossoms, her lap filled with sheaves of golden harvests, she ascends the throne, the proud queen of a happy and hopeful people." Her prosperity, he said, is something over which to rejoice, but the greatest glory, the most priceless wealth and choicest treasure are the men who in the smoke of battle, amid starvation, desolation, wounds, disease and death, laid all at the feet of their country.

Chat About People and Things

Dr. Preston Thomas, Dr. J. B. Jackson and Dr. Manning Brown left last night for Chicago to attend the annual convention of the American Medical association, which will be attended by about 6,000 physicians and specialists from all parts of the United States. The meeting will continue five days.

Hon. Ollie M. James, of the First district, will present the name of his colleague, Hon. A. O. Stanley for the temporary chairmanship of the Democratic state convention, which will meet in Lexington on June 11.

Lyne Starling, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Starling, of this city, has accepted a chair in the faculty of a large academy for boys in New Jersey. He will teach modern language. Mr. Starling, who has been an instructor at Center college, Danville, will sail in a few days for Europe and will spend the summer on the continent.

Next week, the Kentucky New Era will begin the publication of its new serial, "The Merry Widow," of world wide fame as an opera and cleverly made into a novel.

by the author of "The Man of the Hour." The story has all the light and lightness of the musical comedy, and it is profusely illustrated. By the way, the New Era, by special arrangement, will present to its readers the full piano arrangement of "The Merry Widow Waltz."

The Rev. A. J. Smith has returned from Dawson. His health is much improved.

The Rev. C. H. H. Branch will deliver the annual address of the graduating class of the Morganfield High school Thursday night.

Monday was the regular day for the meeting of the Christian county executive committee of the Planters Protective association, but at the May meeting of the committee it was decided to accept an invitation extended by Pembroke to meet there in June. The meeting will be held next Saturday as it was decided that Saturday would be a better day to meet at Pembroke than Monday. The people of Pembroke will entertain the committee, and the meeting there will be one of interest.

The seventy-first annual meeting of the Kentucky Baptist General association will be held in the Twenty-second and Walnut-street Baptist church, at Louisville, beginning June 8. The session will be opened with the ministers' annual meeting on Monday night and will close Friday, June 12.

FAIR ASSOCIATION

FOR CHRISTIAN COUNTY LOOMS UP AS PROBABILITY.

Movement Is Put on Foot by Men Who Accomplish What They Undertake.

A fair association on a big scale is one of the probabilities for this city. There have been vague rumors floating about for some time that such a proposition was on foot but nothing definite could be learned regarding it. Even as yet the full details are not known but enough has been learned to justify the announcement that all indications point to the fruition of the plans.

As yet we are not at liberty to give the names of the parties behind the movement but they have gone so far that the work of organizing the association is to be begun right away. It is believed that they will have no trouble in securing the necessary backing and that the final details will soon be arranged.

The fair grounds will probably be located south of town and between the Palmyra and Cox Mill roads. An option has been secured on a beautiful grove of about forty acres at this point and sufficient cleared ground adjoining this to accommodate the track, grandstand, etc. Arrangements have already been made for entrances from both roads and as the buildings would be in plain view from either thoroughfare it makes it an ideal location.

It is proposed to hold annual old-time country fairs. Displays of country produce and handwork of all kinds will be the drawing card for the mornings. The showing of stock and exhibition races will take place in the afternoon and at night the grounds will be brilliantly illuminated and horse shows will be given. The grove will furnish ample space for visitors to come and eat dinner, picnic style if they so desire, and spend the entire day. Nothing will be left undone which promises to make the fair the biggest thing of the kind in the state.

The importance of such a thing to Hopkinsville cannot be overestimated. Such a fair would be a drawing card which would bring to town thousands of people each year at this time. It would be a season of merry making and good cheer and the renewing of friendships such as could not be brought about in any other way. It would greatly increase the interest in farm products of all kinds and would create a spirit of friendly rivalry between the farmers in raising finest specimens of each crop and entering it for the prizes offered.

CRUSHED TO DEATH

ROBT. H. BROWN VICTIM OF TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.

The Remains Brought to Hopkinsville and Laid to Rest in Riverside Cemetery.

The remains of Robert H. Brown were brought to Hopkinsville this morning from Nashville and interred in Riverside cemetery. The Nashville American gives the following account of the shocking manner of his death:

"Lying face downward on the floor, with blood flowing from mouth and nose, with his left knee broken and his entire body crushed, Robert H. Brown an employee of the Liberty Mills, was found dead on the fourth floor of Mill A Tuesday morning about 8:30 o'clock. When discovered he had evidently been dead only a short while, but the manner in which the tragedy occurred has not been definitely explained as no one was seen near him at the time. An examination of the body by a physician revealed the fact that besides having had his knee dislocated, Brown's skull was fractured, his collar bone was broken, his first, second and third ribs were torn from the sternum, and the anterior portions of nearly all the lower ribs were crushed until they had entered the lungs and heart.

"Mr. Brown had been an employee of the Liberty Mills since last fall, and at the time of his death held the position of oiler and general caretaker of the machinery. His body was found by one of the foremen, and was lying directly under one of the large wheels. While a statement of how death came is only speculative, it is supposed that Brown was caught by the flying wheel and wrenched to death with lightning speed.

"Brown came here from Hopkinsville, Ky., last September, with his wife, aged mother, and two small daughters. The residence is at 415 Eighth avenue, south. The family of the deceased is said to be of considerable prominence in Hopkinsville, his father having been wealthy man of that place. The deceased was 39 years old. He is said to have been one of the most efficient and trusted men in the employ of the Liberty Mills, and the officials he served express deep regret over the tragedy.

"The body is being cared for by the Combs undertaking establishment, and will be shipped to Hopkinsville on the 7:25 o'clock train this morning."

JEFFERSON DAVIS AND THE SOLDIERS OF THE SOUTH

Following the Jefferson Davis memorial exercises at the Ninth Street Presbyterian church, Wednesday afternoon, the Daughters of the Confederacy, under whose auspices the program was given, and the veterans drove out to Riverside cemetery where, with loving and tender hands, the graves of old soldiers were strewn with flowers.

Following is the address delivered at the church by the Rev. C. H. H. Branch:

It is especially fitting that we should unite today in celebrating the centennial of the birth of Jefferson Davis, for within the bounds of what was then Christian county he was born on June 8, 1808. You would hardly expect me to go into the details of his life in this address or to attempt any estimate of his character, about which so much has been said and about which such diverse opinions are held. It may not be improper, however, to call your attention to some of the leading incidents in this life which is so inseparably linked with the history of the south and thus with the history of our country. His ancestry were gentle folk of mixed descent, Welsh, Scotch and Irish, all the national characteristics of which are manifest in his character during his later history. Moving to Mississippi during his infancy, it was to Kentucky that he returned for his education, graduating at Transylvania university in 1824. In the same year he entered West Point, graduating rather low in his class in 1828, with the rank of second lieutenant. For seven years he served in the army on the northwestern frontier, achieving some distinction in his ability to handle men, and reaching the rank of first lieutenant. On account of illness he resigned from the army at the end of this period and spent two years in Washington, during which time he enjoyed the close friendship of Pierce. The following eight years he spent almost in seclusion in Mississippi, where as early as 1838, during the nullification controversy, he advocated what was later to become so familiar a slogan as "states rights." Elected to congress in 1845 he resigned the following year to accept the commission of colonel of the Mississippi volunteers in the Mexican war, in which he rendered distinguished service in the battles of Monterey and Buena Vista, his advice on the latter occasion being largely responsible for the victory. In 1847 he was appointed to a vacancy in the senate and re-elected successively in '48 and '50. Though defeated by the Unionist candidate for governor in the year '51, he was appointed secretary of war in the cabinet of President Pierce, where he received the training that was to prove so valuable in later years. In '67 we find him again in the senate advocating the holding together of the nation by fraternal relation but denying with most vigor that any union could be maintained by coercion, taking as his major premise that such union must be founded on the consent of the members of that union. Earnestly he pleaded with the opposition not to use force and with all his vigor he strove to dispel the clouds of war that were gathering so thickly. On Dec. 10, 1860, ten days before the secession of South Carolina, he said on the floor of the senate, "This union is as dear to me as a union of fraternal states. It would lose its value if I had to regard it as a union held together by physical force. If satisfactory evidence could be given to the people of the south that such a fraternal feeling existed in the hearts of the people of the north, you might burn your statute books and we would cling to the union still. If you can submit to them that evidence, I feel confident that, with the assurance that aggression is henceforth to cease, will terminate all the measures for defense. Upon you of the majority it depends to restore peace and perpetuate the union of equal states; upon us of the minority rests the duty to maintain our equality and community rights."

After the secession of South Carolina, a conference was held between the governor of Mississippi and the representatives in congress to discuss the advisability of following the lead of her sister's state. From a member of that conference comes this statement, "Mr. Davis opposed immediate and separate state action, declaring himself opposed to secession as long as the hope of a peaceable remedy remains. He did not believe we ought to precipitate the issue, as he felt certain that, once there was a clash of arms, the contest would be one of the most sanguinary the world had ever witnessed." After the majority had voted in favor of urging secession he declared "he would stand by whatever action the convention representing the sovereignty of the state of Mississippi might think proper to take." Mississippi seceded on Jan. 9th, 1861, and on the 21st of the month Mr. Davis rose in the senate to notify it of the action of his state and to bid his colleagues farewell. The dignity of his bearing and the force of his logic on this occasion are worthy of note as he sums up his idea of states rights and bids farewell to the union he had loved so well and served so faithfully.

It is a well known fact that Mr. Davis preferred to serve the Confederacy in the capacity of a general in the field and had no desire to serve as its executive officer, but it was not so to be, and by unanimous vote on the 9th of Feb. 1861 he was elected president of the Provisional Confederacy. In his inaugural address he remarked, "We have entered upon the career of independence and it must be inflexibly pursued. Through many years of controversy with our late associates of the northern states, we have vainly endeavored to secure tranquility and obtain respect for the rights to which we are entitled. As a necessity, not a choice, we have resorted to the remedy of secession, and henceforth our efforts must be directed to the conduct of our own affairs, and the perpetuity of the Confederacy which we have formed. If a just perception of mutual interest shall permit us peaceably to pursue our separate political careers, my most earnest desire will have been fulfilled. But if this is denied to us, and the integrity of our territory and jurisdiction be assailed, it will but remain for us, with firm resolve to appeal to arms and invoke the blessing of providence on a just cause."

On Feb. 22d, 1862 he was elected again president of the Confederacy for a term of six years. Of his conduct of that office I shall not pause to speak for I could not hope to throw light on the question of his fitness or unfitness, or to decide between the estimates of those who opposed or who favored his actions. Suffice it to say that his sincerity was never questioned and once having given himself to the task, from which he had ever shrunk, he pursued it faithfully to the end. The criticism of cowardice made against him for his flight after the surrender of the Confederate armies had never seemed to me unjustified in view of the exalted position to which he had been chosen and also in view of the special animosity against him aroused by the assassination of President Lincoln. It is well known that Mr. Lincoln himself had no desire for his arrest and considered it the most expedient thing that he be allowed to escape in order that the administration might be freed from the odium that would attach to any prosecution of one who, from their point of view, was considered a traitor. But the providence of God removed him from the seat of his authority at a time when the country, the South no less than the North, needed his cool head and generous heart to control her destinies. It was only natural, however, that the North, maddened by the assassination of her president, should endeavor to attach the blame upon the highest official of the South, and to connect Mr. Davis in person with the conspiracy. Nothing else would satisfy their demands than that he should be punished and steps were immediately taken to secure his arrest. It may be questioned whether he might not have escaped his enemies even with the small bodyguard surrounding him, had he not, in the tenderness of his heart, tarried to administer to the comfort of his wife in her illness. Of the ignominy of his treatment on the way to his prison, of the cruelty of his confinement, I need not pause to speak. Suffice it to say that such was the opposition aroused in the hearts of the popular demand arose for a fair, impartial and prompt trial. After two years such stalwart defenders of the union as Horace Greely and Cornelius Vanderbilt came to his aid and secured the amount necessary for his bail. And later the indictments for treason were quashed. It is well at times in our feelings of hot resentment, to remember the awful crises through which the entire country was passing, and to recall that it was the influence of the better element of the north that finally secured his release.

But I would be untrue to the honor conferred upon me did I not today speak a word regarding the men who fought for the right as God gave them to see the right, who, with a patriotism that has never been excelled, poured out the wealth of their love on the altar of their devotion, and sealed their opinions with their blood; of that great multitude, who, hearing the call of the land they loved so well, went forth at their best to win, if God would it, to die if it were heaven's decree; but, whatever be the outcome, to lay down their lives for their cause. But peace hath her victories no less than war. The labors of the men, the fidelity of the women of the south after the war are a brighter page in her history than even the battles they fought. To me the struggle of the reconstruction period evidenced greater valor than was shown on any battlefield. It is one thing to face an enemy in the excitement of battle; it is another thing to return to a devastated land and face the issues of sustaining life under such conditions as a conquered people never had faced in the history of the world. Worn by ceaseless combat for four long years, with shattered health and broken hearts, the men of the south returned to bent their swords into plow shares in order to earn, what in some cases was insufficient, bread by the sweat of their brows. Men, unaccustomed to labor from their birth, bent their backs nobly to their toil and with an unequalled heroism brought order out of chaos and plenty out of want.

Women, who had given their dearest possessions to the cause they loved, with an unflinching devotion to their blood-stained soil and bore their hardships willingly and uncomplainingly. Never has an adequate picture been painted of this period, and never shall one be, for who can portray the scenes that met the eyes of the conquered forces as they came home from the battlefield to greet disaster and ruin on every hand?

It is well, I think, that we commemorate the valor of those who died in the cause, it is well that we hand down to our children and our children's children the traditions of our fathers, and instill into them all that was noblest and best in the old south, not with any desire to arouse sectional hatred or awaken resentment on the part of one section of our united land against the other; but as an inspiration to them in the battles that are still to be fought and the problems that still remain unsolved. For the south has her peculiar problems today and a war same nobility of character that went forth in '61, and the same loyalty that served in the hour of her need. The Negro, inseparably linked with our history and indispensable to our industrial development, must be reckoned with. The problem of child labor, with its sister problem of education, is with us. The greed of men and the insatiable appetite of the factory is calling the children of the south by thousands each year into lives of stunted stature and undeveloped minds and, at last, into untimely graves at the time when they should be taking the places of those who have gone before. The temperance movement, now sweeping with its benediction of prosperity and peace through the length and breadth of our land, is calling us to a moral warfare no less exacting than the battles our fathers fought. Shall we, their children, falter? Shall we fail where they never failed? Shall we prove unworthy of our high inheritance? Are we of thinner blood, or of less noble character than they?

We speak of a "Lost Cause"—but is a cause ever lost? Is not a principle an eternal verity? Is not a cause possessed of an immortality? Are bravery and loyalty only for the field of carnage? Are true manhood and true womanhood called forth only at the voice of the trumpet summoning to physical combat? When we are ready to blush at the mention of our fathers' name or apologize for our southern birth, when we are ready to deny our land the best that she calls for, when we are ready to let violence and vice stalk unchecked, then let us call our cause a lost cause. But so long as the spirit of our fathers rests upon us, so long as their example speaks to us, so long as their memories call to us, just so long does their cause live. When it dies, then let righteousness depart, let virtue bow her head in shame, let liberty mourn for her children who are not, let this day be unmentioned among the days of the year, and let the glorious traditions of the south be blotted out and the darkness of an unhallowed night fall upon us.

This lesson includes two of His resurrection appearances, one to the disciples on the first resurrection evening,
Thomas being absent, and one a week later, Thomas being then present. On each occasion His greeting was, "Peace be unto you" (19, 21, 26), and this although all had forsaken Him and Peter had with oaths and curses denied that he knew Him. If we know Him better we would not grieve Him so, and notwithstanding all our sin His thoughts to us are only thoughts of peace. He gives to us His own peace and joy (chapter xiv, 27; xv, 11; xvi,
13; Ps. xxix, 11; Jer. xxxi, 11; Rom. xv, 13), which is independent of circumstances and found wholly in Himself (xvi, 33).His strength and peace and joy become ours not by sense or sight, but wholly by believing for that is faith vision. The world's motto is "Seeing is believing," but the Christian's is "Believing is seeing," remembering John xi, 40, "Said I not unto thee that if thou wouldst believe thou shouldst see?" Our lesson says, "Then were the disciples glad when they saw the Lord." Thomas said, "Except I shall see I will not believe" (verses 20, 25).
In the old story of the deliverance from Egypt we read that Israel saw and believed and then sang (Ex. xiv, 31; xv, 1). Any one could do that, but to believe the bare word of God when everything seems against its fulfillment, as Abraham did, not considering himself, and as Paul did, not considering the storm or the fact that all hope had been given up (Rom. iv, 19-21; Acts xxvii, 20-25), that is God's way of peace for us and our only way of obtaining
it. To Thomas He said, "Because thou hast seen me thou hast believed; blessed are they that have not seen, yet have believed" (verse 20). See also Luke i, 45.On that first evening after Jesus said the second time, "Peace be unto you," He added, "As my Father hath sent me, even so send I you," repeating to them just what He had said to His Father about them (xvii, 15). It would help us greatly to live the resurrection life if we were continually held by this truth that we are sent into the world by and for Him, as He was sent by the Father. Being dead with Him and risen with Him, we are in no sense here for ourselves, but as wholly for Him as He was for God, it

Thousands Have Kidney

Trouble and Never Suspect It.

Prevalence of Kidney Disease.
Most people do not realize the alarming increase and remarkable prevalence of kidney disease. While kidney disorders are the most common diseases that prevail, they are almost the last recognized by patient and physicians, who content themselves with doctoring the effects, while the original disease undermines the system.There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage.
It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes.
You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention this paper and don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y.

WILL BE ONE BODY

CHRISTIAN MISSIONARY ASSOCIATION TO JOIN FORCES

Action Will Be Ratified at Great Meeting To Be Held in Hopkinsville.

One of the most important actions of the South Kentucky Missionary and Sunday school association, which met in annual session at Princeton the first three days of this week, was a decision to join forces with a similar organization in the central and eastern portion of the state, thus making the association a state affair. This decision was reached almost unanimously and is the result of a steadily growing sentiment in this direction. It is believed that under one management the united associations can carry on their work with better results than they could if they remained separate.

Before union can become legally established the action of the South Kentucky association will have to be ratified by the central and eastern branch. As the terms of the joining of forces have all been agreed to already, no trouble or delay is anticipated in a speedy concurrence when a joint meeting of the two associations is held here on September 21-24th. The consideration of the union is expected to be the first piece of important business taken up at the meeting here and when agreed to the two bodies will then be in reality in their first convention as a state organization.

When the union is finally effected it will change the offices of the association somewhat. Rev. J. W. Hudspeth, who has been filling the dual office of evangelist and corresponding secretary for the South Kentucky association, will be relieved of the duties of secretary and will give his entire time to holding revival meetings over the state. It is probable that the office of secretary will be located in Louisville and that the present secretary of the eastern branch will remain in control of this work. Mr. Hudspeth will continue to make his headquarters in Hopkinsville.

These associations are one of the strongest aims of the Christian denomination in Kentucky and the annual conventions always attract large numbers of delegates. On account of the special interest attaching to the convention to be held here next September, an unusually large attendance is expected, not less than a thousand delegates being arranged for. It is said that a special train out of Louisville will bring not less than five hundred and even this far in advance every railroad in the state has granted a rate of one fare for the round trip from all points in Kentucky.

There Are Few people who know how to take care of themselves—the majority do not. The liver is a most important organ in the body. Herbine will keep it in condition. V. C. Simpkins, Albia, Texas, writes: "I have used Herbine for chills and fever and find it the best medicine I ever used. I would not do without it. It is as good for children as it is for grown-up people, and I recommend it. It is fine for La Grippe. For sale by L. A. Johnson."

Mrs. Richard Leavell was the hostess of a delightful reception in honor of Mrs. Grimes and Miss Ware which was given Friday afternoon at her hospitable country home nine miles from the city on the Clarksville pike. There was a large number of guests, many of them being from Hopkinsville. The residence was beautifully decorated and attractively lighted with candles. The guests were met in the hall by Miss Katie Graham and Miss Radford, and punch was served by Miss Lottie Mason. In the parlor was the receiving line in which were Mrs. Leavell, Mrs. Grimes and Miss Ware, Miss Sue Rives, Miss Elizabeth Garnett and Mrs. Lacey. Mrs. Henry I. Minty invited the guests into the dining room, where Mrs. Mason and Miss Garnett were in charge, and individual ices, cakes and minis were served. Sweet music was furnished by Lebkuecher's orchestra.

At a meeting last night of the board of trustees of South Kentucky college and leading members of the Christian church, it was decided to call the Rev. J. B. Briney, of Louisville, to the Bible chair in the college, contingent upon the raising of sufficient funds to guarantee the maintenance of the chair for five years. Dr. Briney is one of the most distinguished leaders in the Christian denomination. He is associate editor of the Christian Standard and a man of learning and zeal. A committee was appointed to solicit subscriptions and will begin work Monday.

"Virginia Park, an Old Kentucky Home" is the title of a framed series of photographs of the beautiful home of Mr. John C. Latham in this city. The artist is W. R. Bowles, and the skill and excellence of the pictures have elicited the admiration of all who have had the pleasure of seeing them at his studio. There is no lovelier place in all Kentucky than Virginia Park and Mr. Bowles with his camera has deftly caught its surpassing attractiveness. In addition to fine views of the spacious grounds and its handsome landscape effects, the residence and its principal apartments are presented in the collection of photographs. Mr. Latham has with rare taste and affectionate care supervised the beautifying of his old home and it would be an ornament to any city in America.

The detail of soldiers from Co. D., composed of Sergeants Renshaw and Waller, and Privates Cravens, Boyd, West and Caudle, who have been on duty for some time at Wheatcroft, in Webster county, returned home Sunday morning, reaching here on the Dixie Flyer.

Lieut. Benj. S. Winfree, who was in command of the detail, returned last week.

Mr. J. K. Twyman is nursing a couple of broken, or at least badly damaged ribs, as a result of a playful encounter with City Engineer McClelland. The two were sitting in the police office and Mr. Twyman, to emphasize a joke, struck Mr. McClelland in the chest. Mr. McClelland responded with a humorous short arm swing, which caught Mr. Twyman in the ribs. The injury was sult a physician, who at once proceeded to bandage him up.

In its portrait gallery of notables the Washington Star publishes a striking likeness of Congressman Owsley Stanley, in a characteristic pose, and this doggerel is underneath:

Cries Stanley, so youthful and frisky:
"I deplore the use of bad whiskey."
After just tasting it
A rabbit will spit
In the face of a dog—and that's risky!

Great crowds attended the services at the Christian church Sunday to welcome in the morning Missionary Gordon, of India, and at night to hear Rev. Millard A. Jenkins' baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class of South Kentucky college.

George Yost, who has been quite ill for some time at Polkton, in the mountains of Kentucky, where he was engaged in civil engineering work for the L. & N. railroad, arrived at home yesterday. His conditions is much improved now.

Dr. R. F. McDaniel has opened offices in the Summers building for the practice of his profession as specialist in the treatment of diseases of the eye, ear nose and throat. He has recently returned from taking a course in this line and is fully equipped for the work. For years Dr. McDaniel practiced as a general physician but, deciding that he preferred to work as a specialist, he has been studying and preparing himself with that purpose in view for a long time.

Edward O. Leigh, formerly private secretary to Gov. Beckham, has accepted editorial management of the Bowling Green Messenger, a new semi-weekly paper started by Judge Henry Hines and Charlie Combs. Mr. Leigh will have entire control of the editorial and news department of the paper and will hold stock in it.

J. T. Harahan, president of the Illinois Central left Chicago Monday for New York from which port he will sail for Europe. The head of the big system goes abroad for rest, but while in the old country he will take up with different boards of trade the question of increased tonnage for the port of New Orleans. Mr. Harahan has made several trips to Europe in the interest of the southern ports and this time it is expected he will present the added attractions of New Orleans and Savannah. He is probably the best known American railroad officer that has visited Europe, his trip several years ago being the pioneer one to boom American ports on the continent and British Isles.

The America Flag Staff association which was formed in 1897, for the purpose of fostering public sentiment in favor of honoring "Old Glory," through its officers is calling attention to the fact that "flag day" this year will be observed everywhere, June 14 is flag day, but as it falls on Sunday, the executive committee of the association has designated Monday, June 15, as flag day. On that day in many of the cities and towns, especially in the east and north, special exercises will be held. The association has done a great deal of work in trying to secure the proper respect and reverence for the flag of the United States.

Dr. Edmund Harrison, of Bethel Female college, authorizes a denial of the rumor that he will retire as president of the institution. That Dr. Harrison will continue at the head of this excellent and flourishing college should be a source of gratification to the people of this region. He is an eminent instructor of young women and a gentleman of the finest culture and citizenship.

Badly Sprained Ankle Cured.
"Three years ago our daughter sprained her ankle and had been suffering terribly for two days and nights—had not slept a minute. Mr. Stallings, of Butler, Tenn., told us of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. We went to the store that night and got a bottle of it and bathed her ankle two or three times and she went to sleep and had a good night's rest. The next morning she was much better and in a short time could walk around and had no more trouble with her ankle."—E. M. END COMES SUDDENLY TO LIFE OF HON. JAS. K. JONES.

Served as Private in Confederate Army—Thrice Congressman and United States Senator From Arkansas—Former Chairman of Democratic National Committee.

SENATOR JAMES K. JONES.

WASHINGTON, June 2.—Former United States Senator James K. Jones, of Arkansas, died at his residence here at 5:30 yesterday afternoon, after an illness of only a few hours, aged 69 years.

The immediate cause of Senator Jones' death was heart failure.

A native of Mississippi, where he was born in 1829, James Kimbrough Jones received a classical education and fought as a private soldier in the Confederate ranks throughout the Civil War. After becoming a resident of Dallas county, Ark., he lived on his plantation there until 1873, when he took up the practice of law. He was elected to the state senate the same year and became president of that body in 1877. Afterwards he was elected to the forty-seventh and the two succeeding congresses, and in 1880 succeeded to the seat of James Walker in the United States senate, where he served three terms, retiring in 1903. Senator Jones was a delegate to the national Democratic convention in 1896, which gave Mr. Bryan his first nomination, and as chairman of the committee on resolutions, he reported the 16 to 1 platform. He was made chairman of the national Democratic committee after the convention, and as such conducted both of the Bryan campaigns for the presidency.

In the senate Mr. Jones came forward rapidly as one of the leaders of his party and was for several years chairman of the Democratic caucus.

LEGAL POINT

In Christian County Case Decided By Court of Appeals.

The Frankfort Journal says: A new point of law was decided by the court of appeals yesterday in local option laws in affirming the judgment of Christian circuit court in the case of the commonwealth against J. A. Ledford. Chief Justice O'Rear wrote the opinion. County court of Christian county granted Ledford a retailer's license to sell liquor compelling him to give bond for $500 to faithfully observe the law and keep an orderly house. Suit was brought on this bond by the commonwealth charging that Ledford had failed to comply with the provisions of the bond. The court here holds that the county court has no authority to exact such a bond.

NO HUMBUG

No humbug claims have been made for Foley's Honey and Tar, the well known remedy for coughs, colds and lung troubles. The fact that more bottles of Foley's Honey and Tar are used than of any other cough remedy is the best testimonial of its great merit. Why then risk taking some unknown preparation when Foley's Honey and Tar costs you no more and is safe and sure, L. A. Johnson & Co.

GRAVES DECORATED

This is national Decoration day and the graves of Union soldiers in Riverside cemetery were strewn with flowers by surviving comrades. There was no fixed program, but a number of the old soldiers and citizens met in front of the courthouse this morning and proceeded to the cemetery where they decorated alike the graves of the Federal and Confederate dead.

The banks and postoffice are closed. Confederate memorial exercises will be held June 8.

"It gives me pleasure to speak a good word for Electric Bitters," writes Mrs. Frank Conlan, of No. 436 Houston St., New York. "It's a grand family medicine for dyspepsia and liver complications, while for lame back and weak kidneys it cannot be too highly recommended." Electric Bitters regulate the digestive functions, purify the blood and impart renewed vigor and vitality to the weak and debilitated of both sexes. Sold under guarantee at Cook & Higgins and

If one feels dull and spiritless, in the spring or early summer, they call it "Spring Fever." But there is no fever—usually. It is the after effect of our winter habits. The nerves are mostly at fault. Tired, worn-out nerves leave us languid, lifeless, and without spirit or ambition. A few doses of Dr. Shoop's Restorative will absolutely and quickly change all of these depressing symptoms. The Restorative of course won't bring you back to full health in a day or two, but it will do enough in 48 hours to satisfy you that the remedy is reaching that "tired spot." Druggists everywhere are advising its use as a splendid and prompt general tonic. It gives more vim and more spirit to the spouthead than any other known nerve or constitutional tonic. It sharpens a falling appetite, aids digestion, frees sluggish livers and kidneys, and brings new life, strength and ambition. Test it a few days and be convinced. SPEAKS TO PUPILS

JUDGE WELLS PAYS VISIT TO HIGH SCHOOLImpresses Upon the Young Hearers
To Seek After Truth as Object in Life.

Before leaving the city for his home at Murray, Judge A. J. G. Wells addressed the students of the High school at chapel exercises Friday morning.

The earnestness and power with which he impressed the pupils in an impromptu speech of twenty minutes were characteristic of the man. Judge Wells was a teacher of young men and women himself for seventeen years and in a most complimentary way, noted with an expression of gratification that he had never in his life anywhere had the pleasure of standing before a student body of finer personnel than that of our High school boys and girls.

The pupils were fully sensible of the privilege accorded in hearing Judge Wells in their own hall of learning. His address to the pupils was in the main an admonition to appropriate their energies, opportunities and education to seeking after truth, to live the truth, and to embody the highest ideals of life. The greatest demands of the ages are upon our high schools and institutions of learning. For from these, we think, must come the men and women who are to dispel and blot out the ignorance and error that are mainly responsible for the evil conditions of the times. He thinks that higher ideals of citizenship must come to our people through the enlightenment gotten in such institutions of learning as our Public High schools. Incidentally he paid a glowing tribute to the work of the public schools and the High schools as factors in the development of the virtues of good citizenship.

He discussed the evils of ignorance as the cause of error, and made it plain to the pupils that their work in the High school was to discover truth as a principle and to seek to incorporate it as the leading principle in their conduct and character. The young men and women of today must find in the influences of the school such elements and integrity of character as will make the citizenship of the future immune from the contamination of error, fanaticism and crime. Lessons in Latin, science, and mathematics impart greater values than the mere knowledge of classic literature, natural phenomena, and of algebra and geometry. The solutions and verifications of involved problems in algebra, and the development of mechanical relations and proofs of propositions in geometry have for their ultimate ends the search for truth and the disestablishment of error. These things learned in the High school are to be appropriated to the establishment of truth in the world, to the making of higher ideals of citizenship, and for impressing upon the character in process of development that the greatest obligation of life is to live for truth and to spurn and frown upon error.

He appealed to young men and women as such that they might address themselves early in life to the task of aiding in the great fight against error and dishonesty on behalf of the integrity of citizenship.

Born in Iowa.

Our family were all born and raised in Iowa, and have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy (made at Des Moines) for years. We know how good it is from long experience in the use of it. In fact, when in El Paso, Texas, the writer's life was saved by the prompt use of this remedy. We are now engaged in the mercantile business at Norcross, Fla., and have introduced the remedy here. It has proven very successful and is constantly in favor. —Ennis Bros. Three Beds Scraped.

CLARKSVILLE, Tenn., May 30. —Three plant beds on Irvin Beard's farm were destroyed last night by unknown parties.

I took Foley's Kidney Remedy. One dollar bottle and part of the second cured me entirely." Foley's Kidney Remedy works wonders where others are a total failure. L. A. Johnson & Co.

Painfully Hurt.

Worden Perrin, an employee of the Pratt-Worthington mill at Crofton, was the victim of a peculiar and very painful accident late Friday afternoon.

He was engaged in sawing some brackets. A bad place in a piece of timber struck the saw, causing some damage to the machinery, and one piece flew up and struck Mr. Perrin across the face just under the nose. The lip was cut entirely through and the gash extended out on to his cheek, necessitating twelve stitches to close it again.

Open Publicity the Best Guaranty of Merit.

When the maker of a medicine, sold through druggists for family use, takes his patients fully into his confidence by frankly and fearlessly publishing broadcast as well as on his bottle wrappers, a full list of all ingredients in plain English, this action on his part is the best possible evidence that he is not afraid to have the searchlight of investigation turned full on his formula and that it will bear the most thorough investigation. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for the cure of weaknesses, periodical pains and functional derangements of the organs distinctly feminine, is a medicine put up for sale through druggists for woman's special use, the maker of which takes his patients into his full confidence by open and honest publicity.

A glance at the published ingredients on each bottle wrapper, will show that it is made wholly from native, American, medicinal roots, that it contains no poisonous or habit-forming drugs, no narcotics and no alcohol—pure, triple-refined glycerine, of proper strength being used instead of the commonly employed alcohol, both for extracting and preserving the active medicinal properties found in the roots of the American forest plants employed. If interested, send name and address to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for his little book of extracts from the works of eminent medical writers and teachers, endorsing the several ingredients and telling just what Dr. Pierce's medicines are made of. It's free for the asking.

CONGRESS CLOSES

CURRENCY BILL, DESPITE FILL-BUSTERING, PASSED.What Was Done and Not Done at the Sixtieth Session—Public Buildings Bill.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—The first session of the sixtieth congress came to a spectacular end ten minutes before midnight Saturday night.

After adopting the currency conference report the senate went ahead and passed the bill providing compensation for the injuries to civil employees of the government engaged in hazardous work. Several amendments adopted by the senate were accepted by the house unanimously, and thus the Roosevelt percentage in the contest with congress over the progressive policies of the administration went up several points.

One of the latest measures to get through was the public building bill, which was held back to the last moment for the purpose of keeping members here until the currency bill became an act. A message from President Roosevelt, read to the house at 10:20, told of the signing of both of the currency and public buildings bills, and a wild tumult of applause followed. The filibuster failed.

The end was spectacular. With that freedom from dignity that always characterizes the breaking up time in the house of representatives the recesses between the reciving of messages from the senate and the president was given over to wild hilarity.

What Congress Has Done.

Enacted an emergency currency law.
Prohibited child labor in District of Columbia.

Lester M. Nelson, of Naples, Maine, says in a recent letter: "I have used Dr. King's New Discovery many years, for coughs and colds, and I think it saved my life. It nearly forty years New Discovery has stood at the head of throat and lung remedies. As a preventive of pneumonia and healer of weak lungs it has no equal. No Need of Suffering From Rheumatism

It is a mistake to allow rheumatism to become chronic, as the pain can always be relieved, and in most cases a cure effected by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm. The relief from pain which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. It makes sleep and rest possible. Even in cases of long standing the liniment should be used on the spot of the relief which it affords. At 50 cent sizes for sale by

Made a Noise.

A giant firecracker in an old tin bucket was exploded at the Cooper building yesterday afternoon and caused a little temporary excitement. As an investigation by the authorities showed that the explosive was harmless, it is generally believed that some practical joker was getting in his foolish work.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. SKIN DISEASES
CAUSED BY HUMORS IN THE BLOOD

The skin is provided with countless pores and glands, through which an evaporation is going on continually, day and night. This is nature's method of regulating the temperature of our bodies, and preserving the natural appearance of the skin. These pores and glands are connected with tiny veins and arteries through which they receive, from the blood, the necessary nourishment and strength to preserve their healthy condition, and enable them to perform this duty.

So long as the blood is pure and rich the skin will be free from eruption or disease, but when the circulation becomes infected with acids and humors its nourishing and healthful properties are lost, and its acrid, humor-laden condition causes irritation and inflammation of the delicate tissues and fibres of the pores and glands, and the effect is shown in Eczema, Acne, Tetter, Salt Rheum, or some other distressing, disfiguring skin disease.

These humors get into the blood through a deranged or inactive condition of the system. Those members whose duty it is to collect and expel the refuse matter of the body fail to properly do their work, and this surplus or waste matter is left in the system to sour and ferment and be absorbed into the blood. There are also certain other humors which get into the blood from without. The juice or milk from poisonous plants, such as poison oak, poison ivy, nettle rash, etc., enters through the open pores of the skin and takes root in the blood. This causes a breaking out which remains for a time and then disappears, but returns at certain seasons of each year.

The cause of all skin troubles can be traced to some kind of humor in the blood. Smooth, healthy skins are only possible where the circulation is pure; and therefore the cure of any skin affection can only come through a thorough cleansing of this vital fluid. Salves, washes, lotions, etc., are valuable only for their ability to keep the skin clean, delay the itching, and tend to reduce inflammation; they cannot correct the trouble because they do not reach the blood.

S. S. S. cures skin diseases of every character and kind, because it purifies the blood. It goes down into the circulation and removes the humors that are causing the trouble, builds up the weak, acrid blood, and completely cures Eczema, Acne, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Poison Oak, Poison Ivy, and all eruptions and diseases of the skin. When S. S. S. has driven the humor from the blood, and cooled and cleansed the acid-heated circulation, every symptom passes away, the skin is again nourished with rich, healthful blood, and comfort is given to disease-tortured skins.
